EXPLANATIONS OF REGULAR STATISTICAL TABLES.

General imports.—The regular statement of imports of merchandise, by articles and countries, in this publication is what is termed the statement of general imports, embracing imported articles entered for immediate consumption on arrival and articles entered for warehouse, as distinguished from special imports, which embrace imports entered for immediate consumption and withdrawals from warehouse for consumption.

The statement of general imports and the statement of imports entered for consumption for any period will differ to the extent that the value of entries for warehouse for the period differs from the value of withdrawals from warehouse for consumption. The term "entry for consumption" is the technical name of the import entry made at the custom-house, and does not imply that the goods have been actually consumed, but simply that they have been delivered into the custody of the importer and that the duties have been paid on the dutiable portion.

The values of articles imported since August 1, 1890, are governed by the provisions of section 19 of the act of June 10, 1890, which prescribes that the values of imported merchandise subject to ad valorem rates of duty shall be "the actual market value or wholesale price of such merchandise as bought and sold in usual wholesale quantities at the time of exportation to the United States in the principal markets of the country from whence imported and in the condition in which such merchandise is there bought for exportation to the United States or consigned to the United States for sale, including the value of all cartons, cases, crates, boxes, sacks and coverings of any kind, and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the merchandise in condition ready for shipment to the United States.

Domestic exports.—The regular statement of domestic exports, by articles and countries, in this publication exhibits the exports of domestic products or manufactures, also exports of commodities of foreign origin which have been changed from the form in which they were imported or enhanced in value by further manufacture in the United States, such as sugar refined in this country from imported raw sugar, flour ground from imported wheat, and articles, utensils, etc., made from imported materials. The value of exports of domestic merchandise is their value at the time of exportation in the ports of the United States whence they are exported.

Foreign exports.—The regular statement of foreign exports, by articles, in this publication, sometimes called "reexports," exhibits exports of foreign merchandise which had been imported. The value of such commodities exported "from warehouse" is their import value; the value of such commodities exported "not from warehouse," comprising free goods mainly, is the value at the ports of the United States whence they are exported.

Warehoused merchandise.—The regular statement of articles remaining in warehouse in this publication exhibits imported merchandise in bonded warehouses. This merchandise has already appeared in the statement of general imports. The official values of the articles therein represented are the same as the import values.

Tonnage tables.—In the tables of tonnage movement in American foreign trade the tonnage is stated in net tons of 100 cubic feet carrying space after the prescribed allowances are made for crew space, engine space, etc.

Weights.—In all tables published by the Bureau the ton weight is 2,240 pounds and the hundredweight is 112 pounds, unless indicated otherwise.

Customs districts.—Statements of imports, exports, and tonnage movement are shown by customs districts, which have a certain prescribed limit of territory with a port of entry. The customs districts having the port of entry with name different from that of the customs district are the following:

COMMERCE BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND ITS NONCONTIGUOUS TERRITORIES AND BETWEEN SAID TERRITORIES AND FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The following tables show the commerce of the noncontiguous territories of the United States with the United States and with foreign countries for comparative periods of time. Customs collectors were not required prior to the act of April 29, 1902, to furnish statements of shipments of merchandise between the United States and its noncontiguous possessions.

Hawaii was annexed to the United States by act of Congress of July 7, 1898, and was made a Territory and customs district by act of April 30, 1900, which took effect June 14, 1900.

Porto Rico was taken possession of by the United States October 18, 1898, and was given a civil government and made a customs district by act of April 12, 1900, to take effect May 1, 1900.

The figures of the commerce between the Philippine Islands and the United States, while at present included in the general tables of foreign commerce of the United States, are also presented herewith in conjunction with the other tables of this group.

APRIL SUMMARY OF INTERNAL TRADE MOVEMENTS.

The Summary of Internal Commerce for April, 1908, includes tables exhibiting the comparative progress of trade movements in different parts of the United States for the month and four months of the current and two or more preceding years. These statistics are gathered partly through the cooperation of commercial organizations and transportation companies, partly by compilation from authoritative trade publications, and to an increasing extent from official reports made by this and other departments of the public service. Statistics of domestic commerce on the Great Lakes, unless otherwise credited, are compiled from supplementary manifests prepared by masters of vessels reporting through the collectors of customs.

The tables which appear in this issue represent six different geographical sections, as follows: I. Commercial movements at interior centers; II. Coastwise commerce on the Great Lakes; III. Commercial movements at the North Atlantic seaboard; IV. Coastwise commerce at Atlantic and Gulf ports; V. Commercial movements in southern territory; and VI. Commercial movements on the Pacific coast. Other tables representing no particular geographical sections are: VII. Commercial movements on rivers and canals; VIII. Commercial movements of coal, coke, and petroleum, and pig-iron production; IX. Ocean freight rates; and X. Changes in rail freight rates.

I.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS AT INTERIOR CENTERS.

[For tables pertaining to this section, see page 1932.]

Receipts of live stock at seven interior primary markets during April, 2,739,516 head, show a considerable decrease, compared both with the figures for the earlier months of the year as well as with like figures for the corresponding months in 1907 and 1906, 3,291,444 and 2,957,854 head. All markets in question, except St. Louis and St. Paul, show smaller receipts than a year ago. Of the total number of animals reported, 518,733 were cattle, 71,474 calves, 1,457,224 hogs, 664,723 sheep, and 27,362 horses and mules. As compared with April, 1907, receipts, the largest decreases occurred in the case of cattle, hogs, and sheep. Receipts at the cities in question, during the first four months of the year, 14,329,766 head, compare favorably with the corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 13,557,400 and 13,444,003 head, though the receipts during these months of cattle and sheep show large decreases as compared with like 1907 figures, the increase in the total being due exclusively to a large gain in the arrival of hogs.

Stocks of meat at five principal interior markets at the close of the month, 327,412,822 pounds, while smaller than at the end of the preceding two months, show, however, a 23 per cent increase over the figures for the corresponding date in 1907, Chicago alone showing a gain of over 57 million pounds over last year's figures, though Omaha and St. Joseph show smaller stocks than for the corresponding date in 1907.

Shipments of packing-house products from Chicago during the month, 171,412,330 pounds, were below the rather large January and February figures, and about 12 per cent less than the April, 1907, shipments of 194,696,715 pounds. As compared with the corresponding 1907 figures, decreases are shown under the head of cured meats, fresh and pickled beef, lard, pork, tallow, and stearine, while hides show considerably larger figures than a year ago. Shipments of canned meats during the month, 5,821,875 pounds, while considerably larger than the April, 1907, shipments of 3,757,050 pounds, were, however, 43 per cent below the April, 1906, figures. Shipments for the first four months of the year aggregated 806,993,502 pounds, compared with 832,001,472 pounds and 930,441,129 pounds shipped during the corresponding 1907 and 1906 periods. The shipments of canned meats during the first four months of the year, 27,362,175 pounds, while over 25 per cent in excess of the 1907 figures, were 47 per cent less than in 1906.

Eastbound trunk-line movements of provisions from Chicago and Chicago Junction points during the five weeks ending April, totaled 91,316 tons, compared with 108,090 and 141,395 tons shipped during the corresponding weeks in 1907 and 1906, practically substantiating the figures given in the preceding paragraph. Figures for the eighteen weeks of the year, 392,400 tons, while but 18,000 tons below the 1907 record are, however, 100,000 tons below the 1906 movement. The weekly average tonnage of provisions moved, which was 23,116 tons for the first thirteen weeks of the year, has decreased to 21,800 tons as the result of the lighter movement during the five weeks in April. The grain movement in April, 13,884,000 bushels, was somewhat lighter than the April, 1907, figures of 14,063,000 bushels, though in excess of the April, 1906, movement of 12,258,000 bushels. Figures for the eighteen weeks of the year, 56,408,000 bushels, show a slight gain over the corresponding 1907 and 1906 data. The flour movement for the five weeks in April, 563,000 barrels, likewise shows a shrinkage compared with the April, 1907, figures, 590,999 barrels, though the figures for the eighteen weeks of the year, 2,626,035 barrels, compare favorably with the corresponding 1907 figures of 2,533,596 barrels.

Grain receipts during April at fifteen primary interior markets, 42,889,642 bushels, were 37 per cent below like receipts for April, 1907, and 6 per cent less than the unusually small receipts for April, 1906. While all the markets in question show greatly reduced receipts as compared with those of a year ago, the largest decreases are shown by Duluth, Minneapolis, and St. Louis, and relatively smaller decreases by Chicago, Kansas City, and Milwaukee. Of the total receipts, wheat constituted 9,628,649 bushels, compared with 20,754,571 bushels received during April, 1907; corn, 14,798,690 bushels, compared with 19,824,350 bushels received during April, 1907; oats, 15,366,672 bushels, compared with 21,687,374 bushels; barley, 2,755,402 bushels, compared with 5,107,624 bushels, and rye, 340,229 bushels, compared with 851,231 bushels. There were also received 1,326,467 bushels of flaxseed, as compared with 3,019,906 bushels reported for April, 1907. Grain receipts at the same markets during the eight months of the crop season, beginning September 1, 549,648,488 bushels, were likewise below the corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 595,908,191 bushels and 606,632,501 bushels, all the important markets in question, except Peoria, showing smaller season receipts than a year ago.

April shipments of pine lumber from the Mississippi and Wisconsin valleys, 85,783,911 feet, while about 44 per cent below the number reported for April, 1907, were, however, larger than the shipments during the earlier months of the year. Shipments for the first four months of the year, 269,021,869 feet, were almost 50 per cent below like shipments for the corresponding periods of the two preceding years.

II.—DOMESTIC COMMERCE ON THE GREAT LAKES.

[For tables pertaining to this section, see page 1941.]

Traffic movements between domestic ports on the Great Lakes during April, as measured by the volume of shipments from the various lake ports, aggregated 740,805 net tons, compared with 3,476,236 net tons reported for April, 1907, and 4,354,750 net tons shipped during April, 1906, notwithstanding the fact that the Canadian Canal at Sault Ste. Marie was opened on the 21st of April instead of the 22d in the year before. Shipments during the first four months of the year, 1,496,894 net tons, show a similar decrease compared with four months' shipments for the years 1907 and 1906, 4,538,895 and 5,405,763 net tons, respectively.

The principal grain shipments for the month comprised 2,257,848 bushels of wheat, mainly from Chicago, Duluth, Milwaukee, Superior, and Toledo, as against 5,875,881 bushels shipped during April, 1907; 266,351 bushels of corn mainly from Chicago and Milwaukee, as against 4,798,568 bushels shipped during April, 1907; 617,266 bushels of oats largely from Manitowoc and Milwaukee and smaller quantities of barley and rye. The coal shipments were also considerably smaller than during April, 1907, and comprised 48,653 net tons of hard coal, mainly from Buffalo, Erie, Oswego, and Ludington, as against 467,743 net tons shipped during April, 1907, and 74,329 net tons of soft coal chiefly from Cleveland, Frankfort, and Ludington, as against 1,171,054 net tons shipped during April, 1907. Moreover, 28,166 net tons are reported to have been supplied to vessels in the domestic trade for their own use during the month, while the quantity of bunker coal supplied to vessels in the foreign trade during the same period is stated as 8,969 net tons. Lumber shipments for the month, chiefly from Manistee, Manistique, Manitowoc, Ludington, and Milwaukee, aggregated 39,253,000 feet, as compared with 79,145,000 feet reported for April, 1907. Similar decreases appear under the head of pig iron and iron manufactures. The only article showing larger shipments for April, 1908, than a year ago, was copper, of which 5,080 net tons were shipped, compared with 3,340 net tons shipped during April, 1907. The largest shipments of this article are reported from Milwaukee, Hancock-Houghton, and Manitowoc. The shipments of miscellaneous merchandise for the month, 296,330 net tons, were likewise smaller than those for April, 1907, 441,509 net tons. No shipments of iron ore were reported for the month.

Vessel departures from Great Lake ports during the month in the domestic trade aggregated 2,626 vessels of 2,137,912 net tons register, compared with 3,989 vessels of 4,527,026 net tons register reported for April, 1907. Like figures for the season to the end of April comprised 5,213 vessels of 4,959,057 net tons register, compared with 7,118 vessels of 7,806,682 net tons register. The largest vessel movement for the season is credited to Milwaukee, the total departures from that port being 838 vessels of 995,992 net tons register, Ludington, Manitowoc, Grand Haven, and Chicago following in the order of the tonnage cleared.

Navigation through the canals at Ontario, Canada, and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., opened on the 21st and 27th of April, respectively. The eastbound movement through the canals consisted mainly of flour and wheat; of the 1,977,480 bushels of wheat locked through the canals, 985,080 bushels represented cargo wheat, loaded at Canadian ports and shipped to American destinations. No ore movement through the canals was reported for the month. The westbound movement consisted chiefly of soft and hard coal, salt, manufactured iron, and general merchandise. The number of vessel passages in either direction aggregated 134, comprising a registered tonnage of 136,396; the corresponding figures for 1907 and 1906 were 424 vessels of 952,385 net tons register, and 1,079 vessels of 2,006,640 net tons register.

Domestic freight traffic through the Detroit River during April aggregated 307,194 net tons register, compared with 2,471,386 net tons register reported for April, 1907. Of the total freight tonnage given, 181,039 represented a southbound and 126,155 a northbound movement. Flour, wheat, and package freight constituted the bulk of the southbound freight, and coal and iron manufactures the larger part of the northbound traffic. The vessel movement during the month through the river comprised 462 vessels of 364,211 net tons register, compared with 1,158 vessels of 1,969,337 net tons register reported for April, 1907. The total monthly movement was nearly equally distributed between northbound and southbound passages, the latter numbering 234 vessels of 191,328 net tons register.

III.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS ON THE NORTH ATLANTIC SEABOARD

[For tables pertaining to this section, see page 1949.]

Live-stock receipts at the four principal Atlantic seacoast cities—Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore—during April, aggregated 771,939 head, compared with 731,215 head received during the same period in 1907. Of the total receipts during the month at the four cities named, 379,106 head were hogs, 75,604 head calves, 103,822 head cattle, and 213,407 head sheep. As compared with the April, 1907, figures, the receipts of cattle show a slight decrease, the receipts of sheep a heavy increase, while receipts of hogs and calves were slightly above like receipts in 1907. Receipts during the first four months of the year, 3,287,602 head, were largely in excess of the corresponding 1907 figures of 2,514,417 head, the main increases occurring in the case of hogs and sheep, while calves and cattle show but slightly larger figures than for the corresponding period in 1907.

Grain and flour receipts at the four cities mentioned for the month, 7,712,542 bushels, show a further decline from the unusually low March figures and were 64 per cent and 45 per cent below corresponding April, 1907 and 1906, totals. The decline affected all the ports in question, as well as the various classes of grains. Thus wheat receipts for the month at the four cities were 808,193 bushels, compared with 3,189,524 bushels received during April, 1907; corn receipts 555,925 bushels, compared with 7,559,177 bushels; while the flour receipts for the month were 840,819 barrels, compared with 1,360,883 barrels received during April, 1907. Exports of these three specified articles from the corresponding customs districts also show a heavy decline as compared with the April, 1907, figures, particularly in the case of corn, of which 1,612,503 bushels were exported during April, 1908, compared with 6,414,275 bushels exported in April, 1907. Receipts of flour and grain at these cities for the first four months of the year, 57,452,563 bushels, show a large decrease compared with the corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 84,856,726 and 87,686,647 bushels. The decline affects wheat and especially corn, the exports of corn during the same period showing a shrinkage fully equal to that noted in the receipts.

IV.—COASTWISE COMMERCE AT ATLANTIC AND GULF PORTS.

[For tables pertaining to this section, see page 1952.]

Coastwise receipts of southern pine at New York during the month ending April 25, 30,875,310 feet, while largely in excess of the low figures for the preceding month, were, however, still below the April, 1907, figures of 34,876,568 feet. Figures for the first four months of the year, 91,473,521 feet, show a 30 per cent shrinkage from the total reported for the corresponding period in 1907, the principal losses occurring in the receipts from Wilmington, N. C., Charleston, S. C., Savannah, Ga., Fernandina, Fla., and Jacksonville, Fla.

Coastwise shipping arrivals at Boston during the month comprised 721 vessels of 739,081 gross tons, compared with 787 vessels of 780,239 gross tons reported during April, 1907. Of the total, 472 vessels of 529,865 tons are credited to southern ports and 249 vessels of 209,216 tons to eastern ports. Figures for the first four months of the year comprise 2,677 vessels of 2,938,868 gross tons, compared with 2,720 vessels of 2,872,490 gross tons reported for the first four months in 1907.

Reported coastwise arrivals at New York during the month comprised 427 vessels, of which 221 are credited to southern ports and 206 to eastern ports, the corresponding 1907 figures being 273 and 267 vessels respectively. The total for the first four months of the year comprised 1,453 vessels, of which 841 were reported from southern ports, the corresponding totals for 1907 and 1906 being 1,790 and 2,092 vessels, respectively.

Arrivals in the coastwise trade at Philadelphia during the month numbered 354 vessels, compared with 365 vessels reported during April, 1907, while figures for the first four months of the year, 1,233 vessels, likewise show a slight decrease from the 1,282 vessels reported for the first four months of 1907.

V.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS IN SOUTHERN TERRITORY.

[For tables pertaining to this section, see page 1955.]

Sight receipts of cotton for the eight months of the season beginning September 1, 10,409,695 bales, were 17 per cent below like receipts for 1907, though over 400,000 bales in excess of the 1906 receipts. Port receipts during the same period totaled 7,725,096 bales, compared with 9,368,455 and 7,137,636 bales for the corresponding period of the 1907 and 1906 seasons. Receipts at 29 leading interior markets for the same period were 4,421,436 bales, compared with 6,622,815 and 4,944,411 bales during 1907 and 1906. American spinners' takings are given as 3,267,150 bales, or about 31 per cent of the total sight receipts, the corresponding percentages in 1907 and 1906 being 33 and 39 per cent, respectively. Of the total takings, 55 per cent are credited to southern mills as against 45 per cent and 46 per cent credited to the South during the 1907 and 1906 seasons. Total American stocks held at the end of the month, 848,785 bales, were considerably below those held on corresponding dates in 1907 and 1906, 966,271 and 955,753 bales, respectively.

Receipts of rough rice at New Orleans during April totaled 1,962 sacks, while aggregate receipts for the nine months of the season were 1,175,401 sacks, compared with 1,183,868 sacks and 851,127 sacks received during the same period of the 1907 and 1906 seasons. Shipments of clean rice during the month totaled 96,298 pockets, while nine months' shipments, 1,446,436 pockets, were considerably below the corresponding shipments for the 1907 and 1906 seasons of 1,653,776 and 1,630,364 pockets, respectively.

VI.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

[For tables pertaining to this section, see page 1960.]

Shipments of redwood lumber from upper California during the month, 36,669,827 feet, while 7 per cent below the corresponding 1907 shipments, show, however, a considerable improvement over the figures of the earlier months. Over 60 per cent of the total shipments were destined to San Francisco Bay, the rest going to southern California and to other, including foreign destinations. The shipments for the four months of the year, 90,846,359 feet, were considerably below the figures for the corresponding periods in 1907 and 1906, 150,044,408 and 102,923,840 feet, though the season shipments to points outside the State, 18,728,800 feet, were in excess of like shipments during the preceding years.

Pine and fir arrivals at California points during the month, 95,085,687 feet, likewise show a considerable improvement over the earlier months' figures, though being over 43 per cent below like figures for April, 1907. The figures for the four months of the year, 298,727,128 feet, were decidedly below the corresponding 1907 figures of 560,427,627 feet, and even less than the corresponding 1906 figures of 346,144,283 feet.

April receipts of flour and grain at San Francisco aggregated 935,492 bushels, of which 498,734 bushels are credited to Oregon and Washington, 429,955 bushels to the interior, and only 6,803 bushels to California coast points. Like receipts for the four months of the year, 4,310,051 bushels, are about 18 per cent below the corresponding 1907 receipts, mainly because of smaller arrivals of wheat, flour, and barley.

April shipments of wheat from Portland, Oreg., were 1,355,076 bushels, while the flour shipments for the same month were 37,626 barrels. Shipments for the first four months of the year aggregated 7,598,236 bushels of wheat and 299,610 barrels of flour, compared with 2,824,644 bushels of wheat and 517,554 barrels of flour shipped during the four months in 1907. Of the total wheat shipments since the beginning of the current year, 90 per cent represented exports, while of the total flour shipments since January, 71 per cent were exports.

Lumber shipments from Portland during the month, 20,216,087 feet, show a large increase over the figures for the earlier months of the year, and compare favorably with the April, 1907, shipments of 18,389,796 feet, owing mainly to the heavier export movement. Shipments for the first four months of the year, 58,898,596 feet, were 15 per cent below the corresponding 1907 shipments, the smaller total being caused by the heavy fall in the domestic shipments from 44,796,572 feet in 1907 to 19,788,674 feet in 1908.

Citrus fruit shipments from southern California during the month were 4,043 cars, of which 3,691 cars were oranges and 352 cars lemons; shipments for the six months of the crop season, beginning November 1, totaled 19,135 cars, of which 16,939 cars were oranges and 2,196 lemons. Corresponding figures for the 1906-7 and 1905-6 seasons were 17,106 cars and 18,142 cars, respectively.

VII.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS ON RIVERS AND CANALS.

[For tables pertaining to this section, see page 1964.]

Figures of upstream traffic during the month on the Monongahela River at Lock No. 1, representing the maximum upstream movement on that river, 28,053 tons, show a heavy decrease compared with like figures for April, 1907 and 1906, 172,031 and 108,409 tons, respectively. Of the total traffic, sand and gravel constituted 28 per cent only, as compared with 30 per cent for April, 1907. The upstream movement of iron and steel products, on the other hand, which during April, 1907, was only 1,675 tons, increased to 12,554 tons, constituting 45 per cent of the total April, 1908, upstream movement, as compared with 1 per cent for April, 1907. The downstream traffic during the month at Lock No. 3, representing the maximum downstream movement on the river, 344,242 tons, was likewise much smaller than the corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 918,610 and 652,164 tons, owing mainly to the smaller shipments of bituminous coal. Figures for the first four months of the year indicate an upstream movement at Lock No. 1 of 236,906 tons, compared with 434,988 tons for the first four months in 1907, and a downstream movement at Lock No. 3 of 2,627,124 tons, compared with 3,103,564 tons for the first four months in 1907.

River traffic in both directions by way of Davis Island Dam during the month, 211,521 tons, owing mainly to the lighter coal movements, shows a considerable decrease from the figures for April, 1907 and 1906, 402,414 and 448,789 tons, respectively. The figures for the first four months of the year, 1,186,903 tons, compare favorably with the corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 1,157,253 and 1,166,262 tons.

Arrivals by river at Cairo, Ill., for the month numbered 851 vessels of 487,374 tons, compared with 750 vessels of 447,808 tons reported for April, 1907. Of the total given, 577 vessels of 353,264 tons, represent a movement between points above and below Cairo, and 274 vessels of 134,110 tons, a movement starting from and ending at Cairo. Figures for the first four months of the year comprised 3,124 vessels of 1,973,275 tons, compared with 2,342 vessels of 1,556,865 tons reported for the same period in 1907.

VIII.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS OF COAL, COKE, AND PETROLEUM—PIG-IRON PRODUCTION.

[For tables pertaining to this section, see page 1967.]

Anthracite coal shipments from eastern producing territory for the month totaled 5,987,221 gross tons, being the largest figure of April shipments on record, and approximating closely the largest monthly shipments known in the history of the trade. Shipments for the first four months of the year, 20,875,474 gross tons, while somewhat below the corresponding 1907 figures of 20,966,063 gross tons, are, however, in excess of like figures for the years 1904 to 1906.

Coal and coke traffic during April over seven eastern coal-carrying roads, 7,487,076 tons, owing to the partial suspension of operations in some of the leading bituminous coal districts, proceeded on a lower scale than during the preceding month, as well as during April, 1907, when 12,155,119 tons were reported to have been carried by the same roads. Anthracite coal shipments, 658,795 tons, were in excess of the April, 1907, shipments; bituminous coal shipments, 5,611,810 tons, were about 37 per cent below the April, 1907, shipments; while the shipments of coke, 1,216,471 tons, show a decrease of over 50 per cent compared with like 1907 shipments. Figures for the first four months of the year, 33,745,162 tons, were 25 per cent below like 1907 shipments, the main decreases occurring under the head of bituminous coal and coke.

The estimated coke production at Connellsville, including the lower district, during the five weeks ending May 2, 758,385 net tons, was 64 per cent below the corresponding 1907 figures of 2,080,252 net tons. The number of idle ovens in the district reported on May 2, 23,408, exceeds by about 1,500 the number reported at the end of March. The number of cars used in shipping the product since the beginning of the year is stated as 112,623, compared with 263,482 cars used during the same period in 1907.

Production of anthracite and coke pig iron during the month, 1,148,691 gross tons, was almost 50 per cent below the corresponding April, 1907, figures. The daily average rate of output, 38,289 gross tons, indicates a smaller activity for the month as compared with the March record, though above that for the earlier months of the year. Decreased activity for the month as compared with the March record, is reported from the Pittsburgh, Shenango Valley, western Pennsylvania, Mahoning Valley, central and northern Ohio, and Alabama districts, while a slight improvement is noted for the works located in Maryland, Virginia, and Kentucky, in the Middle West, and in the New York district.

Runs of petroleum from wells tributary to the principal pipe lines in the Appalachian, Lima-Indiana, and Mid-Continent fields during April aggregated 8,655,828 barrels. Regular deliveries to consumers are given as 7,484,039 barrels, while gross stocks of reporting lines at the end of the month aggregated 66,937,237 barrels, as against 41,724,197 barrels at the end of April of the preceding year.

IX.—CHANGES IN OCEAN FREIGHT RATES.

[For tables pertaining to this section, see page 1971.]

Published ocean freight rates on grain shipments from New York and Boston to Liverpool show a further decline from last month's quotations, the Boston rates being even on a lower level than a year ago, while the New York rates were slightly higher. The reverse is true of rates on grain shipped to Hamburg, which were lower on shipments from New York and higher on shipments from Boston, as compared with last year's quotations. New York rates on grain shipped to French ports, as well as New Orleans rates on grain shipped to European ports, likewise showed a declining tendency, both as compared with quotations of a month and a year ago. Rates quoted during April at Atlantic ports on beef and meat products shipped to British and European destinations were on a higher level than during the preceding month and for April, 1907. New Orleans rates on cotton shipments to British as well as to principal continental ports having further declined since last month are now uniformly lower than corresponding quotations of last year. New York and Baltimore rates on cotton destined to Hamburg, on the other hand, show no change since last month and continue higher than for April of last year.

X.—CHANGES IN RAILROAD FREIGHT RATES.

[For tables pertaining to this section, see page 1973.]

Changes in railroad freight rates, announced by the Interstate Commerce Commission up to May 23, affect mainly the rail and sea rates on traffic between Western territory and the Atlantic seaboard. These rates have been adjusted to meet the lake and rail rates put into effect at the opening of the lake navigation. The westbound sea and rail class rates on traffic to East St. Louis are now identical with like lake and rail rates, while eastbound class rates on traffic by rail and sea from East St. Louis to the Atlantic seaboard are lower than like lake and rail rates, the differentials varying between 4 cents for classes 1 and 2, 3 cents for class 3, and 2 cents for classes 4, 5, and 6.

COMPARISON OF CAR-SERVICE OPERATIONS.

A convenient index to the traffic activities of the country is found in the comparative figures of cars handled by the various car-service associations. Thirty-six different associations report monthly the number of cars handled in their respective territories. Only in a very rough way, however, do these figures indicate the changes in volume of traffic, inasmuch as they do not, in some cases, include more than one-third of the cars actually handled at a given traffic center, and the territory under control of an association may be extended or contracted from time to time. The figures are given, nevertheless, as a convenient general gauge of increase or decrease of traffic by rail, assuming that they are made up on substantially the same basis from year to year.

The number of cars handled by the above 36 car-service associations during the thirty days of April, 2,133,877, indicates a smaller traffic activity than during the preceding month, and was about 23 per cent below the total reported for April, 1907. Figures for the four months of the year, 8,437,033 cars, show a decrease of almost 20 per cent compared with corresponding 1907 figures of 10,447,314 cars.

The American Railway Association notes an increase in the number of idle cars since the 1st of April from 307,507 to 413,605, as per date of the 29th of April. Like figures for the 13th of May, referring to a larger number of roads, show, however, a decrease in the number to 404,534 cars. The number of coal, gondola, and hopper cars, used chiefly in the transportation of mine products, which, on the 1st of April, stood at 120,669, increased to 186,742 on the 29th of the same month, but decreased to 183,041, the number reported for the 13th of May.

I.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS AT INTERIOR CENTERS.

The territory embraced in this section extends from Minneapolis, in the Northwest, to Little Rock, in the Southwest, east as far as Buffalo, and south as far as the Ohio River. Interior traffic movements for April and four months of succeeding years are shown by tables of live-stock receipts and shipments and comparative stocks of provisions at the most important packing-house centers; by tables of receipts and shipments of flour, grain, produce, and merchandise, and by trunk-line shipments of flour, grain, and provisions from Chicago. During the season of canal navigation, canal and rail traffic in grain, flour, and general merchandise at Buffalo is given under this section. Ohio River traffic is reported under Section VII—Commercial movements on rivers and canals.

WESTERN LIVE-STOCK MOVEMENT.

This movement includes receipts and shipments for April and four months at important interior markets for three successive years. For receipts of live-stock at other markets, whose operations are reported in this issue, reference should be made to the general trade movement of these sections.

GRAIN MOVEMENTS FOR CROP PERIODS.

In the following table an attempt is made to present grain movements at interior primary markets in such a manner as to permit of an intelligent study of the effect of each year's production upon such movements. While it is recognized that it would be impossible to present in a single table accurate crop-year periods for each grain, owing to the appreciable difference in time of the maturing and harvesting of the different cereals, it is nevertheless believed that a given period may be used which, although both over and under lapping in certain instances, is comprehensive enough to answer all practical purposes, especially where figures representing movements for cumulative periods of two or more months are employed. To make possible, therefore, the presentation of such information in a single table, September 1 has been decided upon as the fairest arbitrary date on which such statements should begin.

II.—DOMESTIC COMMERCE ON THE GREAT LAKES.

The traffic taken account of in the following tables, except where otherwise specified, is coastwise traffic only, and is confined strictly to commerce between domestic ports during the month of April and four months ending with April. Unless otherwise credited, the statistics of domestic commerce reported herewith are compiled from supplementary manifests prepared by masters of vessels reporting through the collectors of customs.

During the month of April transactions at 93 ports of receipt and 122 ports of shipment were reported. The number of vessels arriving in April was 2,456 and the clearances numbered 2,626 vessels. The registered tonnage for the month was as follows: Arrivals, 1,957,394 net tons; clearances, 2,137,912 net tons. This total does not include the tonnage of vessels engaged in trade between the United States and Canada.

SUMMARY OF DOMESTIC LAKE TRAFFIC, APRIL AND FOUR MONTHS ENDING APRIL, 1906-1908.

A summary of the lake traffic for April, compared with the corresponding months in 1906 and 1907, is given in the following table. The various quantities and units of freight are reduced to their equivalents in net tons. April receipts in 1908 at all ports reporting were 508,198 net tons, compared with 2,486,248 net tons in April, 1907, and 3,179,100 net tons in April, 1906. The figures of shipments of coal include coal loaded for vessels' fuel consumption.

GRAIN RECEIPTS AT SIX DOMESTIC SEAPORTS.

Below is given a comparative table of receipts of grain, including flour reduced to bushels, at six seaboard markets, during April, and four months ending April, 1906, 1907, and 1908. ## IV.—COASTWISE COMMERCE AT ATLANTIC AND GULF PORTS.

The scope of commercial movements represented in this section usually includes receipts and shipments of merchandise between New York and New England ports, giving the bulk of the water-borne trade of nine of these ports with New York; coal shipments by water from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk, and Newport News to seaboard points north and south; coastwise receipts of southern pine and eastern spruce, by cargoes, at New York from sources of origin, and coastwise and foreign shipping movements at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Mobile, Galveston, Port Arthur, and Sabine Pass. Coastwise coal shipments from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newport News, and Norfolk are also presented. Coastwise shipments of petroleum from Texas producing territory to Atlantic and Gulf ports are given in Section VIII. Representative freight rates quoted to leading destinations on the eastern and southern coasts are shown in Section IX.

COAL SHIPMENTS BY WATER FROM NEW YORK, PHILADELPHIA, BALTIMORE, NEWPORT NEWS, NORFOLK.

Through the courtesy and cooperation of nearly all of the more prominent shippers of coal by water from the middle Atlantic ports of New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newport News, and Norfolk to Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coast ports, the following figures of the coastwise coal movement have been obtained. These statistics cover probably more than 90 per cent of the shipments for the places and periods mentioned, and include both anthracite and bituminous coal. Anthracite coal is shipped principally from New York Harbor wharves. From Philadelphia shipments are primarily bituminous and secondarily anthracite. From Baltimore, Newport News, and Norfolk shipments are almost wholly bituminous. During April vessels were supplied with fuel at these five ports to the amount of 365,805 tons.

During April 73 collectors of customs reported 635,026 gross tons of coal loaded on vessels for fueling purposes on the Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coasts. Of this total, 110,971 tons were placed on board vessels destined to domestic ports. This total does not include bunker coal supplied to vessels in the domestic trade at the custom district of New York and 524,055 tons on foreign-bound vessels. The total value of this tonnage was reported as being $2,228,187, an average of about $3.59 per ton.

Moreover, 8,008 gross tons of bunker coal were placed on lake vessels in the foreign trade during the month of April, 1908.

V.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS IN SOUTHERN TERRITORY.

The territory covered in this section includes that lying south of the Potomac and Ohio rivers and east of the Mississippi River and that portion west of the Mississippi included in the States of Louisiana, Oklahoma, and Texas. The characteristic traffic movements are those of cotton, lumber, naval stores, and general commodities.

Cotton-trade reports include the statement of the quantity of the crop brought into sight and its disposition, during successive crop years, ending with August. Other articles of traffic reported are the grain and rice movements at New Orleans, shipments of yellow pine from the Southwest and from Virginia and the Carolinas to destinations, and river and rail traffic at Louisville, Ky., and Little Rock, Ark. Southern river trade is given in Section VII, southern coastwise shipments under Section IV.

SOUTHERN COTTON MOVEMENT.

According to the practice of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, whose official figures are used, except when otherwise specified, the amount of cotton brought into sight from month to month during the season includes (1) receipts from plantations at ports; (2) receipts at the overland points of crossing on the Mississippi, Ohio, and Potomac rivers for shipment direct to northern and eastern mills; and (3) takings by southern mills. To this must be added (4) stocks left over at the end of the year at ports and interior towns. These four items together give the total commercial supply available for distribution.

VII.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS ON RIVERS AND CANALS.

The movements of domestic trade represented under this heading are not confined to any particular geographical division of the country. Operations on some of the leading waterways include those on the Monongahela River between Pittsburg, Pa., and Fairmont, W. Va.; the Ohio River at Davis Island Dam, Bellevue, Pa., and at Louisville, Ky.; the vessel movement at Cairo, Ill., on the Ohio and the Mississippi rivers; the traffic movements on the Delaware and Chesapeake Canal, connecting the Chesapeake and Delaware bays; and similar movements on various other navigable streams about whose navigation acceptable information is periodically available.

Unless otherwise specified, the data out of which the following tables are compiled are derived from monthly reports received from the engineers in charge of river and harbor improvements under the auspices of the War Department.

VESSEL MOVEMENT ON THE MISSISSIPPI AND OHIO RIVERS VIA CAIRO, ILL.

The following table is compiled from monthly reports received from Cairo, Ill., giving the number and tonnage of vessels passing or having their termini there. The tonnage of boats and barges is estimated tonnage. The tonnage of steamboats is actual.

The total through movement represents vessels passing Cairo to or from points on the Ohio, Mississippi, and other rivers. The local movement at Cairo represents vessels having Cairo as one of their termini. (The monthly reports of arrivals and clearances are made by Mr. George Parsons, trustee of Cairo trust property, who is intimately acquainted with river operations at this point.)

For the four months ending April 30, 1908, of the vessels reported, 942 were loaded with coal; 277 carried lumber, logs, piling, and wood; 39 carried ties; 169 carried merchandise; 5, rocks; 14, corn; 31, manufactured iron; 6, molasses; 3, sugar; 1, brick; 1, stoves, and 3, wire and nails.

TRAFFIC ON THE MONONGAHELA RIVER.

The iron and steel products passing Lock No. 1 represent practically the entire river traffic of these products. The coal passing downstream through Lock No. 3, plus 43,788 tons mined in the first and second pools during April, makes a total coal traffic of 382,368 tons for the river during April. Of other downstream freight, 5,662 tons of miscellaneous merchandise are to be added, making a total of 388,030 tons in April. Lock No. 3 represents approximately the general aggregate of down-river tonnage.

For four months ending April the total movement was 3,139,436 tons in 1908, 3,804,840 tons in 1907, and 3,711,261 tons in 1906. Of upstream freight that passing through Lock No. 1 represents approximately the general movement in this direction. The freight passing this point in April amounted to 28,053 tons.

The total freight moved in both directions, on this basis of calculation, was 416,083 tons in April, 1908, as against 1,185,555 tons in April, 1907, and 823,559 tons in April, 1906.

VIII.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS OF COAL, COKE, AND PETROLEUM—PRODUCTION OF PIG IRON.

The series of tables following present some of the leading traffic operations in domestic coal, coke, and petroleum; also figures of pig-iron production by principal districts. They include shipments of anthracite coal from the anthracite regions, anthracite and bituminous coal and coke traffic originating east of Pittsburg and Erie on the Pennsylvania Railroad system, coal and coke shipments over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, the Norfolk and Western Railroad, and other eastern roads, weekly Connells-ville coke output and shipments, and St. Louis receipts of coal. Petroleum statistics are included for the pipe-line territory in the Appalachian, Lima-Indiana, and Midcontinent fields. Statistics of pig-iron production cover the principal producing districts, and are exclusive of small quantities of charcoal iron. For coastwise coal trade generally, see Section IV; for Lake trade, Section II.

STATEMENT OF PIPE LINES IN APPALACHIAN, LIMA-INDIANA, AND MIDCONTINENT FIELDS.

The following table shows the business of the principal petroleum pipe lines in the Appalachian, Lima-Indiana, and Midcontinent fields. The Appalachian field includes Pennsylvania, New York, West Virginia, southeastern Ohio, Kentucky, and Tennessee. The Lima-Indiana field includes northwestern Ohio, Indiana, and the productions in Illinois. The Midcontinent field includes Kansas and Oklahoma.

The pipe lines which report no runs from wells receive their oil through other pipe lines. The regular deliveries represent deliveries to refineries and for export, and do not include deliveries to other pipe lines. The runs from wells represent Appalachian oil exclusively in all cases except three, namely: The Buckeye, which receives Appalachian crude from southeastern Ohio and Lima-Indiana crude from northwestern Ohio; the Indiana Pipe Line Company, which receives crude from Indiana and Illinois, and the Prairie Oil and Gas Company, which operates in the Midcontinent field.

Prior to August, 1906, the Buckeye pipe line reported separately its Appalachian crude, and its Lima-Indiana crude was reported jointly with that of the Indiana pipe line. Also, prior to this date, the pipe lines distinguished deliveries and net stocks of Appalachian oil from those of Lima-Indiana oil, but at present the deliveries and stocks of several of the companies reported in the following table include both kinds of crude oil.

Net stocks, often called liabilities, represent the amount of oil for which the pipe lines have receipted to producers and which they are liable for. In addition, the pipe lines hold a certain amount of sediment and surplus oil which, combined with net stocks, constitute gross stocks.

X.—CHANGES IN RAILROAD FREIGHT RATES.

Changes in railroad freight rates are obtained through the courtesy of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the auditor of that body transmitting them on the latest date which will permit of their insertion in the Summary. In this manner their publication is assured as soon after their receipt as possible, and as a rule they cover a period nearly a month later than that represented by other statements throughout this report.

The matter of deciding what changes shall be considered of enough importance to be presented is left entirely to the discretion of the Commission, all tables which they submit being published without reservation of any kind. This, however, must not be taken to indicate that all important changes are included, as such a presentation would be a practical impossibility, owing to the great number of tariffs to be examined and the short time in which to procure the rates therefrom.

MONTHLY SUMMARY
COMMERCE AND FINANCE
OF THE
UNITED STATES

MAY, 1908

WASHINGTON
GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE
1908

EXPLANATIONS OF REGULAR STATISTICAL TABLES.

General imports.—The regular statement of imports of merchandise, by articles and countries, in this publication is what is termed the statement of general imports, embracing imported articles entered for immediate consumption on arrival and articles entered for warehouse, as distinguished from special imports, which embrace imports entered for immediate consumption and withdrawals from warehouse for consumption.

The statement of general imports and the statement of imports entered for consumption for any period will differ to the extent that the value of entries for warehouse for the period differs from the value of withdrawals from warehouse for consumption. The term "entry for consumption" is the technical name of the import entry made at the custom-house, and does not imply that the goods have been actually consumed, but simply that they have been delivered into the custody of the importer and that the duties have been paid on the dutiable portion.

The values of articles imported since August 1, 1850, are governed by the provisions of section 19 of the act of June 10, 1850, which prescribes that the values of imported merchandise subject to ad valorem rates of duty shall be "the actual market value or wholesale price of such merchandise as bought and sold in usual wholesale quantities at the time of exportation to the United States in the principal markets of the country from whence imported and in the condition in which such merchandise is there bought for exportation to the United States or consigned to the United States for sale, including the value of all cartons, cases, crates, boxes, sacks and coverings of any kind, and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the merchandise in condition ready for shipment to the United States.

Domestic exports.—The regular statement of domestic exports, by articles and countries, in this publication exhibits the exports of domestic products or manufactures, also exports of commodities of foreign origin which have been changed from the form in which they were imported or enhanced in value by further manufacture in the United States, such as sugar refined in this country from imported raw sugar, flour ground from imported wheat, and articles, utensils, etc., made from imported materials. The value of exports of domestic merchandise is their value at the time of exportation in the ports of the United States whence they are exported.

Foreign exports.—The regular statement of foreign exports, by articles, in this publication, sometimes called "reexports," exhibits exports of foreign merchandise which had been imported. The value of such commodities exported "from warehouse" is their import value; the value of such commodities exported "not from warehouse," comprising free goods mainly, is the value at the ports of the United States whence they are exported.

Warehoused merchandise.—The regular statement of articles remaining in warehouse in this publication exhibits imported merchandise in bonded warehouses. This merchandise has already appeared in the statement of general imports. The official values of the articles therein represented are the same as the import values.

Tonnage tables.—In the tables of tonnage movement in American foreign trade the tonnage is stated in net tons of 100 cubic feet carrying space after the prescribed allowances are made for crew space, engine space, etc.

Weights.—In all tables published by the Bureau the ton weight is 2,240 pounds and the hundredweight is 112 pounds, unless indicated otherwise.

Customs districts.—Statements of imports, exports, and tonnage movement are shown by customs districts, which have a certain prescribed limit of territory with a port of entry. The customs districts having the port of entry with name different from that of the customs district are the following:

DISTRICT.	Port of entry.	DISTRICT.	Port of entry.	DISTRICT.	Port of entry.

COMMERCE BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND ITS NONCONTIGUOUS TERRITORIES AND BETWEEN SAID TERRITORIES AND FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The following tables show the commerce of the noncontiguous territories of the United States with the United States and with foreign countries for comparative periods of time. Customs collectors were not required prior to the act of April 29, 1902, to furnish statements of shipments of merchandise between the United States and its noncontiguous possessions.

Hawaii was annexed to the United States by act of Congress of July 7, 1898, and was made a Territory and customs district by act of April 30, 1900, which took effect June 14, 1900.

Porto Rico was taken possession of by the United States October 18, 1898, and was given a civil government and made a customs district by act of April 12, 1900, to take effect May 1, 1900.

The figures of the commerce between the Philippine Islands and the United States, while at present included in the general tables of foreign commerce of the United States, are also presented herewith in conjunction with the other tables of this group.

MAY SUMMARY OF INTERNAL TRADE MOVEMENTS.

The Summary of Internal Commerce for May, 1908, includes tables exhibiting the comparative progress of trade movements in different parts of the United States for the month and five months of the current and two or more preceding years. These statistics are gathered partly through the cooperation of commercial organizations and transportation companies, partly by compilation from authoritative trade publications, and to an increasing extent from official reports made by this and other departments of the public service. Statistics of domestic commerce on the Great Lakes, unless otherwise credited, are compiled from supplementary manifests prepared by masters of vessels reporting through the collectors of customs.

The tables which appear in this issue represent six different geographical sections, as follows: I. Commercial movements at interior centers; II. Coastwise commerce on the Great Lakes; III. Commercial movements at the North Atlantic seaboard; IV. Coastwise commerce at Atlantic and Gulf ports; V. Commercial movements in southern territory; and VI. Commercial movements on the Pacific coast. Other tables representing no particular geographical sections are: VII. Commercial Movements on rivers and canals; VIII. Commercial movements of coal, coke, petroleum, and pig-iron production; IX. Ocean freight rates; and X. Changes in rail freight rates.

I.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS AT INTERIOR CENTERS.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2126.]

Receipts of live stock at seven interior primary markets during May, 3,232,066 head, show a slight decrease compared with like figures for the corresponding months in 1907 and 1906, 3,292,809 and 3,330,985 head. All markets in question, except Kansas City, St. Louis, and Sioux City, show smaller receipts than last year. Of the total number of animals reported, 530,439 were cattle, 66,538 calves, 1,973,857 hogs, 639,440 sheep, and 21,792 horses and mules. As compared with May, 1907, receipts, the greatest decrease was in the case of cattle, with a slight decrease of calves and horses and mules. There was an increase in the case of hogs and sheep. Receipts at the cities in question during the first five months of the year, 17,561,832 head, compare favorably with the corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 16,850,209 and 16,774,988 head, though the receipts of cattle, calves, sheep, and horses show a considerable decrease during these months compared with 1907 figures, the only increase being shown in the case of hogs, where the figures were 10,707,468 for the five months ending May, 1908, as compared with 9,000,888 for last year.

During the month of May grain receipts at fifteen primary markets, 44,164,942 bushels, while 3 per cent above the April receipts, were, however, below the May figures of 1907 and 1906 of 57,821,666 and 47,369,293 bushels, respectively, while all the markets in question, except Omaha, with an increase of about 40 per cent over last year, show decreases, the greatest decreases being shown by Duluth, Minneapolis, and St. Louis. Of the total receipts, wheat constituted 11,476,270 bushels, compared with 18,265,488 bushels received during May, 1907; corn 15,680,910 bushels, compared with 18,592,388 bushels received during May, 1907; oats 14,167,845 bushels, compared with 17,027,852 bushels received during May, 1907; barley 2,514,897 bushels, compared with 3,424,648 bushels received during May, 1907; and rye 325,020 bushels, compared with 511,290 bushels received during May, 1907. There was a great reduction in the receipts of flaxseed as compared with the figures of May, 1907, the figures being 780,459 and 2,821,469 bushels, respectively. Grain receipts at the same markets during the nine months of the crop season, beginning September 1, 1907, 593,813,430 bushels, were likewise below the corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 653,729,857 and 654,001,794 bushels—all the markets in question, except Little Rock and Peoria, showing smaller season receipts than a year ago.

Stocks of meats at five principal interior markets at the close of the month, 322,082,766 pounds, while smaller than at the end of the two preceding months, were, however, in excess of like figures at the end of May, 1907 and 1906. As compared with May, 1907, figures, Kansas City, St. Joseph, and Milwaukee show decreases, while Chicago shows a 22 per cent increase in the stocks held as compared with figures of a year ago.

Shipments of packing-house products from Chicago during the month, 176,701,439 pounds, while still larger than the April shipments, fall below the May, 1907, figure of 199,658,869 pounds and were 35 per cent below the May, 1906, total. As compared with corresponding 1907 figures, decreases are shown in the case of cured meats, pickled beef, lard, pork, tallow, and stearine, while fresh beef, canned meats, dressed hogs, and hides show substantial increases over the figures of the preceding year. Shipments for the five months of the year, 982,694,841 pounds, were below the corresponding 1907 and 1906 totals of 1,031,660,341 and 1,203,374,434 pounds. The shipment of canned meats during the five months of the year, 33,773,100 pounds, were over 8,000,000 pounds in excess of like 1907 figures, though falling 48 per cent below like figures for the five months of 1906.

East-bound trunk-line movement of provisions during the four weeks in May totaled 74,233 tons, the lowest four-week figure recorded during recent years and considerably less than corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 89,961 and 125,371 tons. Figures for the twenty-two weeks of the year, 466,633 tons, while but 25,000 tons below the corresponding 1907 total, show, however, a 25 per cent decline from the 1906 total of 620,221 tons.

The grain movement during May, 10,679,000 bushels, on the other hand, was heavier than during May, 1907 and 1906, when shipments of 9,117,000 and 9,878,000 bushels were reported. The grain movement during the twenty-two weeks of the year, 67,087,000 bushels, likewise compares favorably with corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 62,917,000 and 63,280,000 bushels. The flour movement during May, 299,032 barrels, shows a heavy shrinkage compared with the larger figures for the earlier weeks of the year as well as with the corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 433,808 and 336,814 barrels. The total for the twenty-two weeks, 2,925,067 barrels, is also below corresponding figures for the two earlier years.

II.—DOMESTIC COMMERCE ON THE GREAT LAKES.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2134.]

Lake traffic between domestic ports during May as measured by the volume of shipments from various Lake ports totaled 2,981,944 net tons, compared with 10,816,771 net tons and 7,645,826 net tons shipped during May, 1907 and 1906. Shipments since January 1 of the current year, 4,478,838 net tons, show a similar decrease as compared with the five months' shipments for the two preceding years.

The principal grain shipments for the month comprised 5,762,808 bushels of wheat, mainly from Duluth, Superior, and Chicago, as against 5,698,879 bushels shipped during May, 1908; 3,651,200 bushels of corn, mainly from Chicago, a quantity in excess of the May, 1907, shipments of 551,532 bushels; 3,612,813 bushels of oats, chiefly from Chicago, Superior, Manitowoc, and Milwaukee, and smaller quantities of barley and rye. The eastward iron-ore shipments amounted to 322,214 gross tons, shipped from Duluth and Superior mainly. As a matter of fact, the season of ore shipments may be said not to have yet begun. Recent reports mentioned July 1 as the prospective date when regular shipments may be started. Shipments of soft coal, 540,105 net tons, chiefly from Cleveland, Toledo, and other Lake Erie ports, likewise show a considerable shrinkage from the 1,812,199 net tons reported during May, 1907, while the hard coal shipments, mainly from Buffalo, Erie, and Oswego, 434,496 net tons, were almost 20 per cent larger than like May, 1907, shipments. These totals do not include the quantities of bunker coal supplied to Lake steamers in the domestic trade, 100,234 net tons, compared with 239,454 net tons supplied during May, 1907. Moreover, 26,926 net tons were loaded on board Lake vessels in the foreign trade during the same period. Lumber shipments during the month mainly to Chicago, North Tonawanda, Cleveland, Detroit, and Milwaukee totaled 87,230,000 feet, compared with 166,957,000 feet shipped during May, 1907. The shipments of miscellaneous, including package freight, 724,248 net tons, were but slightly below the like May, 1907, movement, though some ports, Buffalo particularly, present large losses in the shipment of this class of freight; smaller shipments are also reported for pig iron, iron manufactures, copper, and flour than in May, 1907.

Vessel departures from the Great Lake ports during the month in the domestic trade aggregated 6,159 vessels of 5,501,895 net tons register, compared with 8,084 vessels of 10,882,051 net tons register reported for May, 1907. Like figures for the season, to the end of May, comprised 11,372 vessels of 10,460,952 net tons register, compared with 15,202 vessels of 18,688,733 net tons register reported for the season ending May 31, 1907. The largest vessel movement for the season is credited to Milwaukee, the total departures from that port being 1,286 vessels of 1,559,727 net tons register, Chicago, South Chicago, Ludington, Manitowoc, Detroit, and Racine following in the order of the tonnage cleared.

Domestic freight traffic through the Detroit River during May aggregated 1,914,678 net tons, compared with 7,970,873 net tons reported for May, 1907. Of the total freight tonnage given, 840,632 represented a south-bound and 1,074,046 a north-bound movement. Iron ore, wheat, corn, oats, flaxseed, and package freight constituted the bulk of the south-bound freight, and coal, iron manufactures, and package freight the larger part of the north-bound traffic. The season figures to the end of May show a total freight passing through the river amounting to 2,221,872 net tons, of which 1,021,671 net tons represent a south-bound and 1,200,201 net tons a north-bound movement. The vessel movement during the month through the river comprised 1,498 vessels of 1,800,293 net tons register, compared with 2,870 vessels of 5,816,058 net tons register reported for May, 1907. The vessel movement for the current season, 1,964 vessels of 2,168,415 net tons register, shows a large decrease as compared with the figures for 1907, 4,049 vessels of 7,798,470 net tons register.

Freight traffic through the canals at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., and Ontario, Canada, during May totaled 1,561,084 net tons, about one-fifth of the volume of freight which passed through the canals during May of the preceding year, the decrease being more noted in the east-bound movement and particularly in the movement of iron ore, the total of which for the month, 263,882 net tons, is but a small fraction of the 5,292,107 net tons which passed through the canals in May, 1907. The east-bound movement of wheat, 14,805,540 bushels, and of other grain, 5,366,534 bushels, shows an aggregated loss of over 5,000,000 bushels as compared with May, 1907, figures. The lumber movement during the month, 38,954,000 feet, likewise shows a heavy shrinkage from the 103,544,000 feet reported for May, 1907. The west-bound movement of hard coal for the month, 143,029 net tons, was slightly larger than during May, 1907, while the west-bound soft coal movement, 295,440 net tons, shows a heavy decrease as compared with the May, 1907, figures, and the same is true of the west-bound movement of general merchandise, 74,714 net tons, which was 36 per cent below the like movement during May of the preceding year.

The number of vessels passing in either direction during the month aggregated 1,209, comprising a registered tonnage of 1,241,356; the corresponding figures for May, 1907 and 1906, were 2,814 vessels of 5,926,092 net tons register, and 2,762 vessels of 4,635,775 net tons.

III.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS ON THE NORTH ATLANTIC SEABOARD.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2143.]

Live-stock receipts at the four principal Atlantic seacoast cities, Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, during May aggregated 708,153 head, compared with 771,939 head received during the previous month, and 669,161 head during the same period in 1907. Of the total receipts during the month at the four cities named, 344,711 head were hogs, 78,767 calves, 80,532 cattle, and 204,143 sheep. As compared with May, 1907, figures, the receipts of cattle show a heavy decrease, while the receipts of the other classes of animals show somewhat larger figures than a year ago. Receipts during the first five months of the year, 3,995,755 head, were largely in excess of the corresponding 1907 figures of 3,183,578 head, the main increase occurring in the case of hogs and sheep, the figures for calves and cattle showing but a small growth compared with corresponding 1907 figures.

Grain and flour receipts at the four cities named for the month, 15,190,394 bushels, though almost double the quantities received during the previous month, were considerably below the corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 22,132,371 and 20,549,399 bushels. All the ports in question as well as the principal classes of breadstuffs are affected by the decline from last year's figures. The wheat receipts at these four cities for the month were 5,492,617 bushels, compared with 6,307,321 bushels received during May, 1907; the corn receipts aggregated 995,075 bushels, compared with 3,763,739 bushels received during May, 1907, while the quantity of flour received, 1,222,083 barrels, was also considerably below the corresponding 1907 figures of 1,502,468 barrels. The export movement from the corresponding customs districts shows a similar decline; the decline in the exports of corn from 5,538,113 bushels in May, 1907, to 595,744 bushels in May, 1908, being even heavier than the decrease in the receipts. The quantities of flour and grain received at these four cities during the first five months of the year, 72,642,957 bushels, were likewise considerably below the corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 106,989,097 bushels. The decline in the wheat receipts is the more remarkable since the exports from these ports for the five months in question show a larger total than a year ago. The corresponding flour receipts were likewise smaller than during 1907, the flour exports slightly larger, while the shrinkage in the corn exports by about 20 million bushels is about equal to the difference in the receipts.

IV.—COASTWISE COMMERCE AT ATLANTIC AND GULF PORTS.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2147.]

Coastwise receipts of southern pine at New York during the month ending May 25, 24,731,172 feet, were below the figures for the preceding month as well as May, 1907, figures of 32,707,824 feet. The largest losses are shown in the receipts from Jacksonville, Fla., Charleston, S. C., Savannah, Ga., and Wilmington, N. C. Figures for the first five months of the year, 116,204,693 feet, show about 30 per cent shrinkage from the total reported for the corresponding period in 1907, the principal losses occurring in the receipts from the above-named cities as well as from Fernandina, Fla.

Coastwise shipping arrivals at Boston during the month comprised 823 vessels of 914,703 gross tons, compared with 908 vessels of 989,778 gross tons reported for May, 1907. Of the total 522 vessels of 671,417 tons are credited to southern ports, and 301 vessels of 243,286 tons to eastern ports. Figures for the five months of the year comprise 3,500 vessels of 3,853,571 gross tons, compared with 3,628 vessels of 3,862,268 gross tons reported for the same period in 1907.

Reported coastwise arrivals at New York during the month comprised 491 vessels, of which 237 are credited to southern ports and 254 to eastern ports, the corresponding 1907 figures being 315 and 298 vessels, respectively. The total for the five months of the year comprised 1,944 vessels, of which 1,078 were reported from southern ports, the corresponding totals for 1907 and 1906 being 2,403 and 2,732 vessels, respectively.

Arrivals in the coastwise trade at Philadelphia during the month numbered 391 vessels, compared with 390 vessels reported during May, 1907; the figures for the five months of the year, 1,624 vessels, showing a slight decrease from the 1,672 vessels reported for the same period in 1907.

V.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS IN SOUTHERN TERRITORY.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2149.]

The Director of the Census announces the total 1907 cotton crop, as reported by Jenners & Delinters, as 11,325,882 running bales, compared with 13,305,265 and 10,725,602 bales for the 1906 and 1905 crop seasons. The 1907 figures include 268,060 bales of linters, the corresponding totals in terms of bales of 500 pounds each, but excluding linters, being 11,107,179 bales for 1907, 13,273,809 bales for 1906, and 10,575,017 bales for 1905. The largest decreases as compared with the 1906 crop are shown for the states of Texas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Oklahoma, while larger crop figures are reported for the states of Georgia, South Carolina, and North Carolina.

Sight receipts of cotton during the nine months of the season beginning September 1 were 10,778,517 bales, compared with 13,015,709 and 10,511,588 bales reported for the corresponding 1907 and 1906 periods. Port receipts during the same period total 7,962,777 bales, compared with 9,636,192 and 7,489,154 bales for the corresponding periods of the 1907 and 1906 seasons. Receipts at 29 leading interior markets for the same period were 4,545,256 bales, compared with 6,804,850 and 5,127,075 bales during 1907 and 1906. American spinners' takings, including overland shipments to Canada, aggregated 3,575,880 bales, as against 4,516,413 bales and 4,211,691 bales reported for the 1907 and 1906 seasons. Of the total takings for the current season the share credited to the southern mills constituted 55 per cent, compared with 47 per cent for the two preceding seasons. Total American stocks held at the end of the month, 636,714 bales, were considerably below those held on corresponding dates in 1907 and 1906, respectively.

Receipts of rough rice at New Orleans during May totaled 857 sacks, while aggregate receipts for the ten months of the season were 1,176,258 sacks, compared with 1,238,706 and 856,074 sacks received during the same period of the 1907 and 1906 seasons. Shipments of clean rice during the month totaled 77,498 pockets, while ten months' shipments, 1,523,934 pockets, were considerably below the corresponding shipments for the 1907 and 1906 seasons of 1,859,219 and 1,724,546 pockets.

VI.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2154.]

Shipments of redwood lumber from upper California during the month, 30,202,338 feet, were below both the April shipments as well as the corresponding 1907 and 1906 shipments of 39,627,259 and 36,824,461 feet, the principal decrease affecting consignments to San Francisco Bay. Figures for the five months of the year, 121,048,697 feet, were not only much below the unusually high 1907 figures of 189,671,667 feet, but even below the 1906 figures of 139,748,301 feet, shipments to San Francisco Bay and southern California showing the heaviest losses.

Pine and fir arrivals at California points during the month, 106,050,962 feet, show a further improvement over the figures of the earlier months, though being still about 10 per cent below the May, 1907, figures. The total for the five months, 404,778,090 feet, were about 40 per cent below the corresponding 1907 total and even less than the 1906 figures of 427,717,241 feet.

Citrus fruit shipments from southern California during the month totaled 4,167 cars, comprising 3,630 cars of oranges and 537 cars of lemons. Shipments for the seven months of the season, beginning November 1, aggregated 23,302 cars, of which 20,569 cars were oranges and 2,733 cars lemons. Corresponding totals for the 1906-7 and 1905-6 seasons were 21,440 and 21,219 cars, respectively.

May receipts of flour and grain at San Francisco aggregated 1,309,426 bushels, of which 907,751 bushels are credited to Oregon and Washington, 390,425 bushels to the interior, and only 11,250 bushels of oats to the California coast points. Like receipts for the five months of the year 5,619,477, bushels, were almost 10 per cent below the corresponding 1907 receipts, mainly because of smaller arrivals of barley, oats, and flour, only partially compensated by larger receipts of wheat.

May shipments of wheat from Portland, Oreg., aggregated 915,612 bushels; flour shipments for the same month were 95,416 barrels. Shipments for the five months of the year totaled 8,513,848 bushels of wheat and 395,026 barrels of flour, compared with 3,820,755 bushels of wheat and 772,295 barrels of flour shipped during the five months in 1907. Of the total wheat shipments since the beginning of the year over 85 per cent comprised exports, while of the total flour shipments for the five months about 64 per cent were exports.

Lumber shipments from Portland, Oreg., during the month, 19,211,182 feet, while slightly below the figures for the preceding month, compare favorably with the May, 1907, shipment of 13,809,324 feet, owing mainly to the heavier export movement during the month. Shipments for the five months of the year, 78,109,778 feet, were below the corresponding 1907 shipments of 82,947,355 feet, notwithstanding the figures of exports increased from 31,974,783 feet to 52,446,104 feet during the five months in 1908.

VII.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS ON RIVERS AND CANALS.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2158.]

Figures of upstream traffic during the month on the Monongahela River at Lock No. 1, representing the maximum upstream movement on that river, 92,086 tons, show a considerable falling off from like figures for May, 1907 and 1906, 174,839 and 154,915 tons, respectively, owing mainly to the smaller quantities of sand and gravel shipped. The upstream movement of iron and steel product, on the other hand, which during May, 1907, was only 1,166 tons, increased to 6,122 tons during May, 1908. The downstream traffic during the month at Lock No. 3, representing the maximum downstream movement on that river, 953,775 tons, compares favorably with the corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 885,519 and 802,137 tons, owing to the larger shipments of bituminous coal and considerable shipments of iron and steel product. Figures for the five months of the year comprise an upstream movement at Lock No. 1 of 328,992 tons, compared with 609,827 tons during the same period in 1907, and a downstream movement at Lock No. 3 of 3,580,899 tons, compared with 3,989,683 tons during the five months in 1907.

River traffic in both directions by way of Davis Island Dam during the month, 701,583 tons, owing mainly to the heavier coal movement, shows a considerable increase over the corresponding May, 1907 and 1906, figures of 389,344 and 16,397 tons, respectively. The figures for the first five months of the year, 1,888,486 tons, likewise compare favorably with corresponding 1907 and 1906 totals of 1,546,597 and 1,182,659 tons, a larger traffic of coal, iron, and steel manufactures and sand being responsible for the larger totals. The vessel movement since the beginning of the year, 10,465 vessels, shows a considerable increase over the corresponding 1907 and 1906 totals of 7,942 and 5,800 vessels, respectively.

Arrivals during the month by river at Cairo, Ill., at the confluence of the Mississippi and Ohio rivers, numbered 870 vessels of 509,086 tons, compared with 1,219 vessels of 786,010 tons reported for May, 1907. Of the total given, 586 vessels of 374,155 tons represent a movement between points above and below Cairo, and 284 vessels of 134,931 tons a movement starting from or ending at Cairo. Figures for the five months of the year comprise 3,994 vessels of 2,482,361 tons, compared with 3,561 vessels of 2,342,875 tons reported for the same period in 1907.

The freight movement over the New York State canals during the current season comprised 283,242 tons, of which 171,894 tons moved eastward and 111,348 tons westward. About 32 per cent of the traffic was through freight and the rest way or local freight. The traffic during the current season was the lightest since 1901.

VIII.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS OF COAL, COKE, AND PETROLEUM—PIG-IRON PRODUCTION.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2161.]

Anthracite-coal shipments from eastern producing territory for the month totaled 6,088,116 gross tons, being the largest monthly total shipped in the history of the trade. Shipments for the five months of the year, 26,963,590 tons, are likewise larger than corresponding totals during any earlier years.

Coal and coke traffic during May over seven eastern coal-carrying roads, 7,552,424 tons, while showing a slight improvement over the preceding month of 7,487,076 tons, is nearly 4 million tons below like figures for the same period in 1907, the increase being entirely due to the heavier shipments of bituminous coal, the shipments of which during May amounted to 5,939,229 tons, as compared with 8,423,746 tons during the same period in 1907. Anthracite-coal shipments, 544,834 tons, show a decrease of about 3 per cent, as compared with May, 1907, shipments; while the shipments of coke, 1,068,361 tons, show a decrease of nearly 54 per cent compared with like 1907 shipments. Figures for the first five months of the year, 41,297,586 tons, were 27 per cent below like 1907 shipments, the main decreases accruing under the head of bituminous coal and coke.

The estimated coke production at Connellsville, including the lower district, during four weeks ending May 30, 669,227 net tons, was almost a million tons below the corresponding 1907 figure. The number of idle ovens in the district reported on May 30, 22,632, was, however, slightly lower than any of the end-week figures since the end of March. The number of cars used in shipping the product since the beginning of the year is stated as 135,548, or less than one-half the number reported for the corresponding 1907 period.

Production of anthracite and coke pig iron during the month, 1,163,997 gross tons, was only about one-half the quantity produced during May, 1907, all the large districts showing corresponding declines in their output. The daily average rate of output, 37,548 gross tons, indicates a smaller activity for the month as compared with the April record. The output for the five months of the year, 5,664,793 gross tons, was about 49 per cent less than the total produced in 1907 during the same period, the Pittsburg district alone showing a decrease of over 1 million tons since the beginning of the year.

Runs of petroleum from wells tributary to the principal pipe lines in the Appalachian, Lima-Indiana, and Mid-Continent fields during May aggregated 8,573,432 barrels. Regular deliveries to consumers are given as 7,855,399 barrels, a quantity somewhat larger than the one reported for the preceding month. Gross stocks of reporting lines at the end of the month aggregated 69,031,130 barrels, as against 42,786,082 barrels at the end of May of the preceding year.

COMPARISON OF CAR-SERVICE OPERATIONS.

A convenient index to the traffic activities of the country is found in the comparative figures of cars handled by the various car-service associations. Thirty-six different associations report monthly the number of cars handled in their respective territories. Only in a very rough way, however, do these figures indicate the changes in volume of traffic, inasmuch as they do not, in some cases, include more than one-third of the cars actually handled at a given traffic center, and the territory under control of an association may be extended or contracted from time to time. The figures are given, nevertheless, as a convenient general gauge of increase or decrease of traffic by rail, assuming that they are made up on substantially the same basis from year to year.

Reports from 36 car-service associations, covering practically the entire territory of the United States, indicate the total number of cars handled during May, 2,060,522, compared with 2,839,816 and 2,479,685 cars handled during May, 1907 and 1906. The total number of cars handled during the five months of the year by these associations, 10,497,555, was 20 per cent and 15 per cent below the corresponding figures of 1907 and 1906.

The American Railway Association notes a slight though steady improvement in the freight-car situation of the country, the number of idle cars having decreased from 413,605 on the 29th of April to 404,534 on May 13, to 381,904 on May 27, to 349,994 on the 10th of June.

I.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS AT INTERIOR CENTERS.

The territory embraced in this section extends from Minneapolis, in the Northwest, to Little Rock, in the Southwest, east as far as Buffalo, and south as far as the Ohio River. Interior traffic movements for May and five months of succeeding years are shown by tables of live-stock receipts and shipments and comparative stocks of provisions at the most important packing-house centers; by tables of receipts and shipments of flour, grain, produce, and merchandise, and by trunk-line shipments of flour, grain, and provisions from Chicago. During the season of canal navigation, canal and rail traffic in grain, flour, and general merchandise at Buffalo is given under this section. Ohio River traffic is reported under Section VII—Commercial movements on rivers and canals.

GRAIN MOVEMENTS FOR CROP PERIODS.

In the following table an attempt is made to present grain movements at interior primary markets in such a manner as to permit of an intelligent study of the effect of each year's production upon such movements. While it is recognized that it would be impossible to present in a single table accurate crop-year periods for each grain, owing to the appreciable difference in time of the maturing and harvesting of the different cereals, it is nevertheless believed that a given period may be used which, although both over and under lapping in certain instances, is comprehensive enough to answer all practical purposes, especially where figures representing movements for cumulative periods of two or more months are employed. To make possible, therefore, the presentation of such information in a single table, September 1 has been decided upon as the fairest arbitrary date on which such statements should begin.

II.—DOMESTIC COMMERCE ON THE GREAT LAKES.

The traffic taken account of in the following tables, except where otherwise specified, is coastwise traffic only, and is confined strictly to commerce between domestic ports during the month of May, and five months ending with May. Unless otherwise credited, the statistics of domestic commerce reported herewith are compiled from supplementary manifests prepared by masters of vessels reporting through the collectors of customs.

During the month of May transactions at 154 ports of receipt and 210 ports of shipment were reported. The number of vessels arriving in May was 6,005 and the clearances numbered 6,159 vessels. The registered tonnage for the month was as follows: Arrivals, 5,272,317 net tons; clearances, 5,501,895 net tons. This total does not include the tonnage of vessels engaged in trade between the United States and Canada.

SUMMARY OF DOMESTIC LAKE TRAFFIC, MAY AND FIVE MONTHS ENDING MAY, 1906-1908.

A summary of the lake traffic for May compared with the corresponding months in 1906 and 1907 is given in the following table. The various quantities and units of freight are reduced to their equivalents in net tons. May receipts in 1908 at all ports reporting were 2,561,409 net tons, compared with 9,827,447 net tons in May, 1907, and 7,450,839 net tons in May, 1906. The figures of shipments of coal include coal loaded for vessels' fuel consumption.

IV.—COASTWISE COMMERCE AT ATLANTIC AND GULF PORTS.

The scope of commercial movements represented in this section usually includes receipts and shipments of merchandise between New York and New England ports, giving the bulk of the water-borne trade of nine of these ports with New York; coal shipments by water from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk, and Newport News to seaboard points north and south; coastwise receipts of southern pine and eastern spruce, by cargoes, at New York from sources of origin, and coastwise and foreign shipping movements at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Mobile, Galveston, Port Arthur, and Sabine Pass. Coastwise coal shipments from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newport News, and Norfolk are also presented. Coastwise shipments of petroleum from Texas producing territory to Atlantic and Gulf ports are given in Section VIII. Representative freight rates quoted to leading destinations on the eastern and southern coasts are shown in Section IX.

COAL SHIPMENTS BY WATER FROM NEW YORK, PHILADELPHIA, BALTIMORE, NEWPORT NEWS, NORFOLK.

Through the courtesy and cooperation of nearly all of the more prominent shippers of coal by water from the middle Atlantic ports of New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newport News, and Norfolk to Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coast ports, the following figures of the coastwise coal movement have been obtained. These statistics cover probably more than 90 per cent of the shipments for the places and periods mentioned, and include both anthracite and bituminous coal. Anthracite coal is shipped principally from New York Harbor wharves. From Philadelphia shipments are primarily bituminous and secondarily anthracite. From Baltimore, Newport News, and Norfolk shipments are almost wholly bituminous. During May vessels were supplied with fuel at these five ports to the amount of 313,369 tons.

During May 76 collectors of customs report 621,944 gross tons of coal loaded on vessels for fueling purposes on the Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coasts. Of this total, 125,410 tons were placed on board vessels destined to domestic ports and 496,534 tons on foreign-bound vessels. The total value of this tonnage was reported as being $2,205,733, an average of about $3.55 per ton.

SOUTHERN COTTON MOVEMENT.

According to the practice of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, whose official figures are used, except when otherwise specified, the amount of cotton brought into sight from month to month during the season includes (1) receipts from plantations at ports; (2) receipts at the overland points of crossing on the Mississippi, Ohio, and Potomac rivers for shipment direct to northern and eastern mills; and (3) takings by southern mills. To this must be added (4) stocks left over at the end of the year at ports and interior towns. These four items together give the total commercial supply available for distribution.

VII.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS ON RIVERS AND CANALS.

The movements of domestic trade represented under this heading are not confined to any particular geographical division of the country. Operations on some of the leading waterways include those on the Monongahela River between Pittsburg, Pa., and Fairmont, W. Va.; the Ohio River at Davis Island Dam, Bellevue, Pa., and at Louisville, Ky.; the vessel movement at Cairo, Ill., on the Ohio and the Mississippi rivers; the traffic movements on the Delaware and Chesapeake Canal, connecting the Chesapeake and Delaware bays, and similar movements on various other navigable streams about whose navigation acceptable information is periodically available.

Unless otherwise specified, the data out of which the following tables are constructed are derived from monthly reports received from the engineers in charge of river and harbor improvements under the auspices of the War Department.

VESSEL MOVEMENT ON THE MISSISSIPPI AND OHIO RIVERS VIA CAIRO, ILL.

The following table is compiled from monthly reports received from Cairo, Ill., giving the number and tonnage of vessels passing or having their termini there. The tonnage of boats and barges is estimated tonnage. The tonnage of steamboats is actual.

The total through movement represents vessels passing Cairo to or from points on the Ohio, Mississippi, and other rivers. The local movement at Cairo represents vessels having Cairo as one of their termini. (The monthly reports of arrivals and clearances are made by Mr. George Parsons, trustee of Cairo trust property, who is intimately acquainted with river operations at this point.)

For the five months ending May 31, 1908, of the vessels reported, 1,293 were loaded with coal; 422 carried lumber, logs, piling, and wood; 51 carried ties; 224 carried merchandise; 5, rocks; 14, corn; 34, manufactured iron; 6, molasses; 3, sugar; 5, brick; 1, staves, and 7, wire and nails.

The coal passing downstream through Lock No. 3, plus 105,132 tons mined in the first and second pools during May, makes a total coal traffic of 1,040,532 tons for the river during May. Of other downstream freight, 18,375 tons of miscellaneous merchandise are to be added, making a total of 1,058,907 tons in May. Lock No. 3 represents approximately the general aggregate of down-river tonnage.

For five months ending May the total movement was 4,290,429 tons in 1908, 4,946,913 tons in 1907, and 4,736,909 tons in 1906. Of upstream freight that passing through Lock No. 1 represents approximately the general movement in this direction. The freight passing this point in May amounted to 92,086 tons.

VIII.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS OF COAL, COKE, AND PETROLEUM—PRODUCTION OF PIG IRON.

The series of tables following present some of the leading traffic operations in domestic coal, coke, and petroleum; also figures of pig-iron production by principal districts. They include shipments of anthracite coal from the anthracite regions, anthracite and bituminous coal and coke traffic originating east of Pittsburg and Erie on the Pennsylvania Railroad system, coal and coke shipments over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, the Norfolk and Western Railroad, and other eastern roads, weekly Connells-ville coke output and shipments, St. Louis receipts of coal. Petroleum statistics are included for the pipe-line territory in the Appalachian, Lima-Indiana, and Midcontinent fields. Statistics of pig-iron production cover the principal producing districts, and are exclusive of small quantities of charcoal iron. For coastwise coal trade generally, see Section IV; for Lake trade, Section II.

STATEMENT OF PIPE LINES IN APPALACHIAN, LIMA-INDIANA, AND MIDCONTINENT FIELDS.

The following table shows the business of the principal petroleum pipe lines in the Appalachian, Lima-Indiana, and Midcontinent fields. The Appalachian field includes Pennsylvania, New York, West Virginia, southeastern Ohio, Kentucky, and Tennessee. The Lima-Indiana field includes northwestern Ohio, Indiana, and the productions in Illinois. The Midcontinent field includes Kansas and Oklahoma.

The pipe lines which report no runs from wells receive their oil through other pipe lines. The regular deliveries represent deliveries to refineries and for export, and do not include deliveries to other pipe lines. The runs from wells represent Appalachian oil exclusively in all cases except three, namely: The Buckeye, which receives Appalachian crude from southeastern Ohio and Lima-Indiana crude from northwestern Ohio; the Indiana Pipe Line Company, which receives crude from Indiana and Illinois, and the Prairie Oil and Gas Company, which operates in the Midcontinent field.

Prior to August, 1906, the Buckeye pipe line reported separately its Appalachian crude, and its Lima-Indiana crude was reported jointly with that of the Indiana pipe line. Also, prior to this date, the pipe lines distinguished deliveries and net stocks of Appalachian oil from those of Lima-Indiana oil, but at present the deliveries and stocks of several of the companies reported in the following table include both kinds of crude oil.

Net stocks, often called liabilities, represent the amount of oil for which the pipe lines have receipted to producers and which they are liable for. In addition, the pipe lines hold a certain amount of sediment and surplus oil which, combined with net stocks, constitute gross stocks.

X.—CHANGES IN RAILROAD FREIGHT RATES.

Changes in railroad freight rates are obtained through the courtesy of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the auditor of that body transmitting them on the latest date which will permit of their insertion in the Summary. In this manner their publication is assured as soon after their receipt as possible, and as a rule they cover a period nearly a month later than that represented by other statements throughout this report.

The matter of deciding what changes shall be considered of enough importance to be presented is left entirely to the discretion of the Commission, all tables which they submit being published without reservation of any kind. This, however, must not be taken to indicate that all important changes are included, as such a presentation would be a practical impossibility, owing to the great number of tariffs to be examined and the short time in which to procure the rates therefrom.

No changes in railroad freight rates were reported by the Interstate Commerce Commission for the month of May, 1908.

EXPLANATIONS OF REGULAR STATISTICAL TABLES.

General imports.—The regular statement of imports of merchandise, by articles and countries, in this publication is what is termed the statement of general imports, embracing imported articles entered for immediate consumption on arrival and articles entered for warehouse, as distinguished from special imports, which embrace imports entered for immediate consumption and withdrawals from warehouse for consumption.

The statement of general imports and the statement of imports entered for consumption for any period will differ to the extent that the value of entries for warehouse for the period differs from the value of withdrawals from warehouse for consumption. The term "entry for consumption" is the technical name of the import entry made at the custom-house, and does not imply that the goods have been actually consumed, but simply that they have been delivered into the custody of the importer and that the duties have been paid on the dutiable portion.

The values of articles imported since August 1, 1890, are governed by the provisions of section 19 of the act of June 10, 1890, which prescribes that the values of imported merchandise subject to ad valorem rates of duty shall be "the actual market value or wholesale price of such merchandise as bought and sold in usual wholesale quantities at the time of exportation to the United States in the principal markets of the country from whence imported and in the condition in which such merchandise is there bought for exportation to the United States or consigned to the United States for sale, including the value of all cartons, cases, crates, boxes, sacks and coverings of any kind, and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the merchandise in condition ready for shipment to the United States.

Domestic exports.—The regular statement of domestic exports, by articles and countries, in this publication exhibits the exports of domestic products or manufactures, also exports of commodities of foreign origin which have been changed from the form in which they were imported or enhanced in value by further manufacture in the United States, such as sugar refined in this country from imported raw sugar, flour ground from imported wheat, and articles, utensils, etc., made from imported materials. The value of exports of domestic merchandise is their value at the time of exportation in the ports of the United States whence they are exported.

Foreign exports.—The regular statement of foreign exports, by articles, in this publication, sometimes called "reexports," exhibits exports of foreign merchandise which had been imported. The value of such commodities exported "from warehouse" is their import value; the value of such commodities exported "not from warehouse," comprising free goods mainly, is the value at the ports of the United States whence they are exported.

Warehoused merchandise.—The regular statement of articles remaining in warehouse in this publication exhibits imported merchandise in bonded warehouses. This merchandise has already appeared in the statement of general imports. The official values of the articles therein represented are the same as the import values.

Tonnage tables.—In the tables of tonnage movement in American foreign trade the tonnage is stated in net tons of 100 cubic feet carrying space after the prescribed allowances are made for crew space, engine space, etc.

Weights.—In all tables published by the Bureau the ton weight is 2,240 pounds and the hundredweight is 112 pounds, unless indicated otherwise.

Customs districts.—Statements of imports, exports, and tonnage movement are shown by customs districts, which have a certain prescribed limit of territory with a port of entry. The customs districts having the port of entry with name different from that of the customs district are the following:

DISTRICT.	Port of entry.	DISTRICT.	Port of entry.	DISTRICT.	Port of entry.

COMMERCE BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND ITS NONCONTIGUOUS TERRITORIES AND BETWEEN SAID TERRITORIES AND FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The following tables show the commerce of the noncontiguous territories of the United States with the United States and with foreign countries for comparative periods of time. Customs collectors were not required prior to the act of April 29, 1902, to furnish statements of shipments of merchandise between the United States and its noncontiguous possessions.

Hawaii was annexed to the United States by act of Congress of July 7, 1898, and was made a Territory and customs district by act of April 30, 1900, which took effect June 14, 1900.

Porto Rico was taken possession of by the United States October 18, 1898, and was given a civil government and made a customs district by act of April 12, 1900, to take effect May 1, 1900.

The figures of the commerce between the Philippine Islands and the United States, while at present included in the general tables of foreign commerce of the United States, are also presented herewith in conjunction with the other tables of this group.

JUNE SUMMARY OF INTERNAL TRADE MOVEMENTS.

The Summary of Internal Commerce for June, 1908, includes tables exhibiting the comparative progress of trade movements in different parts of the United States for the month and six months of the current and two or more preceding years. These statistics are gathered partly through the cooperation of commercial organizations and transportation companies, partly by compilation from authoritative trade publications, and to an increasing extent from official reports made by this and other departments of the public service. Statistics of domestic commerce on the Great Lakes, unless otherwise credited, are compiled from supplementary manifests prepared by masters of vessels reporting through the collectors of customs.

The tables which appear in this issue represent six different geographical sections, as follows: I. Commercial movements at interior centers; II. Coastwise commerce on the Great Lakes; III. Commercial movements at the North Atlantic seaboard; IV. Coastwise commerce at Atlantic and Gulf ports; V. Commercial movements in southern territory; and VI. Commercial movements on the Pacific coast. Other tables representing no particular geographical sections are: VII. Commercial movements on rivers and canals; VIII. Commercial movements of coal, coke, petroleum, and pig-iron production; IX. Ocean freight rates; and X. Changes in rail freight rates.

I.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS AT INTERIOR CENTERS.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2323.]

Movements of live stock at seven interior live-stock markets during June show improvements over the preceding months as well as over the same months in 1907 and 1906. Receipts of all kinds of live stock at the seven markets in question were, for June, 3,258,561 head, as against 3,202,033 and 3,252,106 head for June, 1907 and 1906. Only the cities of Kansas City, St. Paul, and Sioux City, show decreases in receipts over a year ago. As compared with June of last year, receipts show an increase for calves, hogs, and sheep. There was a slight decrease in the case of cattle and horses and mules. During the first six months of the year receipts at the cities in question, 20,820,393 head, show a considerable increase over the corresponding 1907 and 1906 figures of 20,052,242 and 20,227,094 head, though the receipt of cattle, calves, and horses and mules show a slight decline, the receipts of hogs are enough in advance of the preceding years to make up the increase of all kinds of animals. There is likewise a perceptible increase in the shipments at these seven markets for the month of June and the first half of the year. For the current month the figures for shipments of all kinds of animals were 749,954 head, as against 578,651 and 623,505 head for 1907 and 1906; and for the six months of the present year the figures were more than 100,000 in advance of the same period last year—being 5,377,875 and 4,217,088 head, respectively; the number of cars required to handle these being 105,673 compared with 100,978.

The showing made by grain receipts at fifteen markets for the current month is not so good when compared with the figures of last year. However, receipts for June, 45,678,265 bushels, show a slight advance over those of last month. The figures for the same month of 1907 and 1906 were 64,650,970 and 58,433,834 bushels, respectively. Every city constituting the fifteen markets, with the exception of Minneapolis, Little Rock, and Louisville, show smaller receipts than during June of last year. Of the total receipts, wheat constituted 10,352,285 bushels, compared with 14,131,702 bushels received during June, 1907; corn 20,240,512 bushels, as against 35,102,129 bushels received during June, 1907; oats 12,583,693 bushels, compared with 13,205,946 bushels received during June, 1907; barley 2,209,728 bushels, compared with 1,867,720 bushels received during June, 1907; rye 292,047 bushels, compared with 343,473 bushels for June, 1907. The receipts of flaxseed, 968,567 bushels, are only about two-thirds of that of June of last year. Flour receipts of 1,659,975 barrels also show a slight decline from the June, 1907, figures of 1,856,305 barrels. At these same markets, during the ten months of the crop season, beginning September 1, 1907, there was a considerable decline when compared with the receipts of the same period of the two preceding years; the figures for the current year, 639,491,695 bushels, as against 718,380,827 and 712,435,628 bushels; Kansas City, Little Rock, and Peoria being the exceptions in the case of gains—all the others showing losses.

Stocks of meats at five principal interior markets at the close of June, 316,017,383 pounds, were smaller than at the end of the preceding months and likewise below June of 1907. Omaha and Milwaukee show a slight increase over last year, while Chicago, Kansas City, and St. Joseph show considerable decline.

East-bound trunk-line movement of provisions during the four weeks of June amounted to 84,322 tons, which were in excess of the preceding four weeks of May, but below any other four-week figures recorded during the present year. Figures for the first half of the year, or twenty-six weeks, of 550,955 tons, compare more favorably with the 581,209 tons of last year, but show, however, a decline from the 1906 total of 750,681 tons. The receipts of grain of 11,426,000 bushels for June were largely in excess of those of 1907 and 1906 of 7,866,000 and 6,011,000 bushels, the movement of the same commodity for twenty-six weeks of the current year, 78,513,000 bushels, also compares favorably with the two preceding years of 70,783,000 and 69,291,000 bushels, respectively. Flour shipments show a decline both from the four weeks and the twenty-six weeks ending with June, when compared with the two preceding years, the figures being for the four weeks of June 281,367 barrels, as against 400,360 and 285,786 barrels for the same period in 1907 and 1906; and for the first half of the year, 3,206,434 barrels, compared with 3,367,764 and 3,295,369 barrels, respectively.

In the shipments of packing-house products from Chicago during the month of June there was a perceptible gain over June of last year, but the figures, 204,823,305 pounds, were slightly below those of 1906. As compared with the figures of 1907, increases are shown in dressed beef, canned meats, cured meats, dressed hogs, hides, lard and stearin, while pickled beef, pork, and tallow show declines. Shipments for the first six months of the year, 1,188,518,246 pounds, were below the corresponding figures of 1907 and 1906 of 1,225,749,456 and 1,478,911,070 pounds; the greatest decline for the six months' period being shown in the case of pickled beef and stearin.

II.—DOMESTIC COMMERCE ON THE GREAT LAKES.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2336.]

Traffic on the Great Lakes between domestic ports during June as measured by the volume of shipments from various ports totaled 7,427,616 net tons, compared with 11,690,632 net tons and 10,259,477 net tons shipped during June, 1907 and 1906. Shipments since January 1 of the current year, 11,906,454 net tons, show a similar decrease as compared with the six months for both preceding years.

The principal grain shipments for the month comprised 2,210,308 bushels of wheat, mostly from Duluth, Milwaukee, Superior-West Superior, and Chicago-South Chicago, as against 3,515,043 bushels for June of last year; 2,738,942 bushels of corn, most of which was loaded at Chicago, show a heavy decrease from the June, 1907, figures of 8,834,612 bushels; oats, 1,821,456 bushels, were in comparison with 2,277,510 bushels shipped during June, 1907. Largely reduced quantities of barley and rye were shipped during the current month when compared with the same month of last year. Shipments of hard and soft coal for June show an increase over the same month of 1907; the total of the former being 804,044 net tons, in comparison with 376,686 net tons for last year, and the latter, 2,134,854 net tons as against 2,115,097 net tons for a like period of 1907. Hard-coal shipments were mainly from Buffalo and Erie. These totals do not include the quantities of bunker coal supplied to lake steamers in the domestic trade, 197,628 net tons, compared with 277,688 net tons supplied during June, 1907; moreover, 35,954 net tons were loaded on board lake vessels in the foreign trade during the same period. Miscellaneous and lumber shipments each indicate a decline from the shipments of June, 1907; while salt, 84,574 net tons, shows an increase over the June, 1907, figures of 53,331 net tons. The monthly figures of copper shipped show about 50 per cent gain over the same period of 1907.

Vessel departures from the Great Lake ports during the month in the domestic trade aggregated 8,591 vessels of 10,357,875 net tons register, compared with 9,823 vessels of 13,384,782 net tons register reported for June, 1907. Like figures for the season, to the end of June, comprised 19,963 vessels of 20,818,827 net tons register, compared with 25,025 vessels of 32,073,515 net tons register reported for the season ending June 30, 1907.

Domestic freight traffic through the Detroit River during June aggregated 6,032,523 net tons, compared with 9,630,257 net tons reported for June, 1907. Of the total freight tonnage given, 2,979,838 represented a southbound and 3,052,685 a northbound movement. Iron ore, wheat, corn, oats, flaxseed, and package freight constituted the bulk of the southbound freight, and coal, iron manufactures, and package freight the larger part of the northbound traffic. The season figures to the end of June show a total freight passing through the river amounting to 8,254,395 net tons, of which 4,001,509 net tons represent a southbound and 4,252,886 net tons a northbound movement. The vessel movement in both directions during the month through the river comprised 2,519 vessels of 4,843,567 net tons register, compared with 3,461 vessels of 7,103,554 net tons register reported for June, 1907. The vessel movement for the current season, 4,483 vessels of 7,011,982 net tons register, shows a large decrease as compared with the figures for 1907, 7,510 vessels of 14,902,024 net tons register.

Freight traffic through the canals at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., and Ontario, Canada, during June totaled 4,334,183 net tons, about one-half of the volume of freight which passed through the canals during June of the preceding year, the decrease being more noted in the eastbound movement, and particularly in the movement of iron ore, the total of which for the month, 2,469,548 net tons, is about 40 per cent of the 6,343,645 net tons which passed through the canals in June, 1907. The eastbound movement of wheat, 5,659,663 bushels, and of other grain, 1,926,738 bushels, shows an aggregated loss of over 6,500,000 bushels as compared with June, 1907, figures. The lumber movement during the month, 73,273,000 feet, likewise shows a heavy shrinkage from the 118,062,000 feet reported for June, 1907. The westbound movement of hard coal for the month, 219,853 net tons, was slightly larger than during June, 1907, while the westbound soft-coal movement, 1,088,873 net tons, shows a heavy decrease as compared with the June, 1907, figures, and the same is true of the westbound movement of general merchandise, 97,106 net tons, which was 31 per cent below the like movement during June of the preceding year.

The number of vessels passing in either direction during the month aggregated 1,952, comprising a registered tonnage of 3,398,188; the corresponding figures for June, 1907 and 1906, were 3,134 vessels of 6,628,262 net tons register, and 3,245 vessels of 5,682,321 net tons.

III.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS ON THE NORTH ATLANTIC SEABOARD.

[For tables pertaining to this section see p. 2346.]

At the principal Atlantic seacoast cities, Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, receipts of live stock during June aggregated 801,115 head, compared with 691,226 head during the same period of 1907. Of the total receipts at the end of the month at the four ports named, 367,366 head were hogs, 75,348 calves, 82,671 cattle, and 275,730 sheep. As compared with June, 1907, figures, cattle show but a slight decrease, while all other animals show substantial increases in number over a year ago. Receipts during the first half of the year, 4,796,870 head, were largely in excess of last year's receipts for the same period, 3,874,804 head, the principal increases occurring in the excess of hogs and sheep, while cattle and calves likewise show slight increases. Receipts of flour and grain at the four cities named for June were 11,375,318 bushels, in contrast with the heavy receipts of June, 1907, 16,868,093 bushels; but the June, 1906, figures, 12,634,973 bushels, are more nearly a comparison. All the ports in question, as well as the different classes of breadstuffs, are affected by the decline from last year's figures. Wheat receipts at the four cities for June were 2,272,547 bushels, compared with 3,772,925 bushels during June, 1907; corn receipts, 828,134 bushels, contrasted with 4,263,310 bushels received during June, 1907, while the quantity of flour, 1,061,012 barrels, was more nearly a just comparison with the receipts of 1,207,044 barrels for June, 1907. The export movements from the corresponding customs districts show a like decline during the month of June, the 1907 figures being 127,060 barrels above those for the corresponding month. During the first six months of the year the quantities of flour and grain received at these four cities, 84,018,275 bushels, show correspondingly heavy decreases from the 1907 and 1906 figures of 123,857,190 and 120,871,019 bushels.

IV.—COASTWISE COMMERCE AT ATLANTIC AND GULF PORTS.

[For tables pertaining to this section see p. 2350.]

Coastwise receipts of southern pine during June, 23,878,395 feet, were a little less than 50 per cent decline from the receipts of June, 1907, of 45,071,790 feet, the largest losses being shown in the receipts from Fernandina and Jacksonville, Fla., Mobile, Ala., and Savannah, Ga. For the first six months of the year 140,083,088 feet are contrasted with 209,304,193 feet for the same period of 1907. The principal shrinkage occurred at Fernandina and Savannah.

Of the coastwise arrivals at Boston during the month, 562 vessels of 697,377 gross tons were from the southern ports and 300 vessels of 239,050 gross tons were from the eastern ports, making a total of 862 vessels of 936,427 gross tons. The latter number compares favorably with the June, 1907, totals of 873 vessels of 902,261 gross tons. There is likewise an equity of comparison of the six months' totals of 4,362 vessels of 4,789,988 gross tons with those of the same period of 1907 of 4,501 vessels of 4,764,529 gross tons. Coastwise arrivals at New York for the month of June amounted to 509 vessels, 257 of which were from southern ports and 252 from eastern ports, in comparison with the June, 1907, figures of 604 vessels made up of 313 vessels from southern and 291 vessels from eastern ports. A similar comparison exists in the season figures of six months ending June, 1908, where the figures are 2,453 vessels compared with 3,007 vessels.

Shipping arrivals in the coastwise trade at Philadelphia during the month were 405 vessels, in comparison with 381 vessels in June, 1907; the figures for the first six months of the year were 2,029 vessels, as against 2,053 vessels for the same period in 1907.

V.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS IN SOUTHERN TERRITORY.

[For tables pertaining to this section see p. 2332.]

Beginning September 1 the sight receipts of cotton for the ten months were 11,493,507 bales, compared with 13,524,338 bales and 11,225,475 bales for the corresponding period of 1907 and 1906. During the same period port receipts totaled 8,217,824 bales, compared with 9,758,729 bales for 1907 and 7,652,797 bales for the 1906 season. Receipts at 29 leading interior markets were 4,671,588 bales, as against 6,877,494 bales and 5,198,850 bales reported for the same period in 1907 and 1906. American spinners' takings, including overland shipments to Canada, amounted to 3,884,222 bales, compared with 4,761,147 bales and 4,471,151 bales reported for a like period in the 1907 and 1906 seasons, the share credited to the southern mills constituted 2,117,448 bales, compared with 2,269,132 bales for 1907 and 2,149,920 bales for the 1906 season.

Receipts of rough rice, 1,778,447 sacks, for the eleven months ending with June, compare very favorably with 1,243,006 sacks reported for the same period in 1907. There is likewise but a slight difference in the distribution of rough rice when compared with the eleven months of last year, the figures being 1,196,157 sacks for 1908 and 1,239,061 sacks for 1907. Receipts and shipments of clean rice both show declines when compared with last year's totals, the receipts for the eleven months ending June, 1908, being 569,154 pockets, as against 751,236 pockets for the same period in 1907, while the shipments show a falling off of over 300,000 pockets when compared with similar period in 1907.

VI.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2356.]

Arrivals of vessels in the coastwise trade at San Francisco for June, 252,435, compare favorably with the arrivals for a similar period in 1907 of 265,278 vessels. Of the former total, 215,210 vessels were from the Pacific States' coast, while the remainder, 37,225 vessels, were distributed among Alaska, Hawaiian Islands, and eastern coast.

Shipments of redwood lumber from upper California during the month, 29,701,923 feet, are slightly lower than for a like period in 1907 of 34,680,882 feet and in 1906 of 31,986,973 feet. The principal decreases both for the month and the six months' season which show a shrinkage from 224,352,549 feet in 1907 to 150,750,620 feet in 1908, affect principally consignments to San Francisco Bay.

Flour and grain receipts at San Francisco for June 1,306,849 bushels, show a slight advance over the receipts of 1,197,683 bushels for June, 1907. There is still, however, a decrease of nearly 500,000 bushels during the season of six months ending with June, when compared with a like season in 1907. The figures are for the current year 6,926,326 bushels, as against 7,421,800 bushels in the preceding year; the principal decline manifesting itself in receipts of barley, where the receipts show an extraordinary gain from 798,942 bushels in 1907 to 2,225,891 bushels received in 1908.

Shipments of citrus fruit from southern California during the month, totaled 4,500 cars, comprising 3,826 cars of oranges and 674 cars of lemons. Considerable increase is shown over the totals of the two preceding years; the figures for 1907 being 2,989 cars and for 1906 2,666 cars. Shipments for the eight months ending with June, 27,802 cars, are likewise in excess of the 24,429 cars shipped in 1907 and 23,885 cars shipped in 1906.

June shipments of wheat from Portland, Oreg., aggregated 995,870 bushels, which were far in excess of shipments for a like period in 1907 of 267,372 bushels, while the shipments of flour, 77,204 barrels, show a marked decline when compared with the June, 1907, figures of 199,970 barrels. For the season of six months, wheat receipts show a gain of about 50 per cent over the same period in 1907, while flour shipments declined more than 50 per cent from last year's figures.

VII.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS ON RIVERS AND CANALS.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2360.]

River traffic in both directions by way of Davis Island Dam during the month, 130,410 tons, show a decrease from 1907 figures of 218,586 tons. For the six months ending with June the total traffic in both directions, 2,018,896 tons, is considerably heavier than for either of the two preceding years; the figures of 1907 and 1906 being 1,765,183 and 1,554,749 tons, respectively. The principal commodity of traffic was coal, which shows a healthy increase over the two preceding years. The vessel movement in both directions since the beginning of the year likewise compares favorably with last year's, and is far in advance of that of 1906. The number of vessels in both directions for the six months as reported is 12,818, in comparison with 10,402 for a like period in 1907.

For the month of June arrivals by river at Cairo, Ill., at the confluence of the Mississippi and Ohio rivers, numbered 741 vessels of 417,771 tons, compared with 852 vessels of 531,420 tons reported for June, 1907. For the first half of the year, 4,735 vessels of 2,900,132 tons, show a considerable gain over a like period in 1907 of 4,413 vessels of 2,874,295 tons.

Totals of upstream traffic during the month on the Monongahela River at Lock No. 1, representing the maximum upstream movement on that river, 108,538 tons, show a decline from the June, 1907 and 1906, figures of 164,259 and 171,474 tons, respectively. The decline of traffic is shown principally in the quantities of sand and gravel shipped. The upstream movement of bituminous coal and iron and steel products shows, however, an increase over the June, 1907, traffic in that direction. Compared with the six months ending with June, 1907, the figures of upstream traffic for the first six months of the current year, 4,207,672 tons, show only a small decline, being about 15 per cent, and for 1906 about a 12 per cent decline.

Traffic on the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal in both directions aggregated 65,688 tons, as compared with the June, 1907, figures of 66,307 tons. The vessel movement on this canal in both directions for the month was 492 vessels, a gain of 42 vessels over the same month in 1907. Of the present month's movement 212 vessels were westward bound and 280 vessels eastward bound. For the first half of the year, 242,844 tons, representing the total movement in both directions, shows a slight gain over the 242,019 tons reported for the same period in 1907.

VIII.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS OF COAL, COKE, AND PETROLEUM—PIG-IRON PRODUCTION.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2364.]

During June coal and coke traffic over seven eastern coal-carrying roads, 8,452,060 tons, while showing a considerable improvement over the preceding month's figures of 7,552,424 tons, is nearly 3 million tons short of the June, 1907, totals. The increase over last month's figures is due to the heavier shipments of bituminous coal, which show nearly a million tons advance over May figures. Anthracite coal shipments, 462,539 tons, for June, 1908, are smaller than the June, 1907, shipments of 573,735 tons. The total shipments of anthracite coal over the same roads for six months ending June, 3,087,557 tons, make a better comparison with the figures of 3,758,649 tons for a like period in 1907 than the coke shipments. In the latter case the season figures of 1907 exceeded those for the same period of the current year by nearly 50 per cent. Bituminous coal makes a much better showing for the season; the figures, 39,728,908 tons for the first six months of the year, compared with 50,678,295 tons for a like period in 1907.

Anthracite coal shipments from the eastern producing territory for the month reached a total of 5,704,852 gross tons, slightly below the record of the preceding month with its 6,088,116 gross tons, and a fair comparison with June, 1907, figures of 5,924,260 gross tons. Shipments for the first half of the year, 32,668,442 gross tons, also compare favorably with 32,884,595 gross tons for the same period in 1907.

The estimated coke production at Connellsville, including the lower district, during the four weeks ending June 27, 646,036 net tons, was over a million tons below the corresponding figures of 1907. The number of idle ovens in the district reported on June 27 was less than any of the end-weeks since March 28. The number of cars used in the shipment of the product for the twenty-six weeks ending June 27, 160,283, was less than one-half the number used for the same period in 1907.

Pig-iron production during the month, 1,088,634 gross tons, was about 50 per cent less than the production during June, 1907, all the districts showing declines in the output. The output for the first six months of the year, of 6,755,118 gross tons, was only slightly in excess of one-half the quantity produced during the similar period in 1907. The Pittsburg district shows the greatest decline, being 1,776,117 gross tons for the six months of the current year, in contrast for the like period of 1907 of 3,110,881 gross tons.

Runs of petroleum from the wells tributary to the principal pipe lines in the Appalachian, Lima-Indiana, and Mid-Continent fields for the month aggregated 8,040,305 barrels, which quantity was over 400,000 barrels short of last month's runs. To consumers the regular delivery represents 8,183,738 barrels, compared with 7,855,399 barrels reported for the preceding month. Gross stocks of reporting lines at the end of June aggregating 70,801,512 barrels were likewise in excess of the quantities reported at the end of June, 1907, 44,445,195 barrels.

IX.—CHANGES IN OCEAN FREIGHT RATES.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2368.]

Ocean freight rates on grain shipments from New York and Boston to European ports show a decline from those quoted a year ago. The decline since last month is but slight, and affects only a few ports. New Orleans grain rates were lower than those quoted for June, 1907. The rates on grain to Bremen, Bordeaux, Hamburg, and Liverpool show the heaviest declines, while the rates to Rotterdam are advanced a fraction over those of last year. Rates on flour shipped from New York and Boston to British ports, however, declined considerably from those reported a year ago. The rate on tobacco in the hoghead from Baltimore to the principal tobacco-receiving ports in Great Britain has declined about 10 per cent from the published June, 1907, quotations. The rates from New Orleans and Baltimore to European ports on cotton show but little change from those published last month and compare favorably with the quotations for June, 1907.

X.—CHANGES IN RAILROAD FREIGHT RATES.

[For tables pertaining to this section see page 2370.]

Changes in railroad freight rates announced by the Interstate Commerce Commission during the month of July affect only rates on coffee and sugar. Those in effect from July 15 show slight advances on the commodities above mentioned from New Orleans to Chicago, St. Louis, St. Paul, Duluth, and the Missouri River—the highest range being on coffee from New Orleans to Chicago; rate quotations January 1, 1908, 22 cents per 100 pounds; rate in effect July 15, 1908, 25 cents per 100 pounds. From Atlantic seacoast ports to Chicago there is an advance of about 2½ cents per 100 pounds on coffee and sugar, to be effective August 1, 1908. This applies equitably to all-rail and lake-and-rail shipments. There are similar changes in the rates between the ports of St. Paul and Duluth.

COMPARISON OF CAR-SERVICE OPERATIONS.

A convenient index to the traffic activities of the country is found in the comparative figures of cars handled by the various car-service associations. Thirty-six different associations report monthly the number of cars handled in their respective territories. Only in a very rough way, however, do these figures indicate the changes in volume of traffic, inasmuch as they do not, in some cases, include more than one-third of the cars actually handled at a given traffic center, and the territory under control of an association may be extended or contracted from time to time. The figures are given, nevertheless, as a convenient general gauge of increase or decrease of traffic by rail, assuming that they are made up on substantially the same basis from year to year.

Reports from 36 car-service associations, covering practically the entire territory of the United States, indicate the total number of cars handled during June, 2,163,136, compared with 2,666,841 and 2,464,506 cars handled during June, 1907 and 1906. Practically all the associations show an increase in the number of cars reported for June over those reported for the preceding month.

The American Railway Association reported a marked improvement in the freight-car situation of the country, the number of idle cars having decreased from 349,994 on June 10 to 313,298 on June 24.

I.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS AT INTERIOR CENTERS.

The territory embraced in this section extends from Minneapolis, in the Northwest, to Little Rock, in the Southwest, east as far as Buffalo, and south as far as the Ohio River. Interior traffic movements for June and six months of succeeding years are shown by tables of live-stock receipts and shipments and comparative stocks of provisions at the most important packing-houses centers; by tables of receipts and shipments of flour, grain, produce, and merchandise, and by trunk-line shipments of flour, grain, and provisions from Chicago. During the season of canal navigation, canal and rail traffic in grain, flour, and general merchandise at Buffalo is given under this section. Ohio River traffic is reported under Section VII—Commercial movements on rivers and canals.

GRAIN MOVEMENTS FOR CROP PERIODS.

In the following table an attempt is made to present grain movements at interior primary markets in such a manner as to permit of an intelligent study of the effect of each year's production upon such movements. While it is recognized that it would be impossible to present in a single table accurate crop-year periods for each grain, owing to the appreciable difference in time of the maturing and harvesting of the different cereals, it is nevertheless believed that a given period may be used which, although both over and under lapping in certain instances, is comprehensive enough to answer all practical purposes, especially where figures representing movements for cumulative periods of two or more months are employed. To make possible, therefore, the presentation of such information in a single table, September 1 has been decided upon as the fairest arbitrary date on which such statements should begin.

The traffic taken account of in the following tables, except where otherwise specified, is coastwise traffic only, and is confined strictly to commerce between domestic ports during the month of June and six months ending with June. Unless otherwise credited, the statistics of domestic commerce reported herewith are compiled from supplementary manifests prepared by masters of vessels reporting through the collectors of customs.

During the month of June transactions at 152 ports of receipt and 218 ports of shipment were reported. The number of vessels arriving in June was 8,411 and the clearances numbered 8,591 vessels. The registered tonnage for the month was as follows: Arrivals, 9,786,191 net tons; clearances, 10,357,875 net tons. This total does not include the tonnage of vessels engaged in trade between the United States and Canada.

SUMMARY OF DOMESTIC LAKE TRAFFIC, JUNE AND SIX MONTHS ENDING JUNE, 1906-1908.

a Revised figures for 1906 and 1907.

IV.—COASTWISE COMMERCE AT ATLANTIC AND GULF PORTS.

The scope of commercial movements represented in this section usually includes receipts and shipments of merchandise between New York and New England ports, giving the bulk of the water-borne trade of nine of these ports with New York; coal shipments by water from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk, and Newport News to seaboard points north and south; coastwise receipts of southern pine and eastern spruce, by cargoes, at New York from sources of origin; and coastwise and foreign shipping movements at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Mobile, Galveston, Port Arthur, and Sabine Pass. Coastwise coal shipments from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newport News, and Norfolk are also presented. Coastwise shipments of petroleum from Texas producing territory to Atlantic and Gulf ports are given in Section VIII. Representative freight rates quoted to leading destinations on the eastern and southern coasts are shown in Section IX.

COAL SHIPMENTS BY WATER FROM NEW YORK, PHILADELPHIA, BALTIMORE, NEWPORT NEWS, NORFOLK.

Through the courtesy and cooperation of nearly all of the more prominent shippers of coal by water from the middle Atlantic ports of New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Newport News, and Norfolk to Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coast ports, the following figures of the coastwise coal movement have been obtained. These statistics cover probably more than 90 per cent of the shipments for the places and periods mentioned, and include both anthracite and bituminous coal. Anthracite coal is shipped principally from New York Harbor wharves. From Philadelphia shipments are primarily bituminous and secondarily anthracite. From Baltimore, Newport News, and Norfolk shipments are almost wholly bituminous. During June vessels were supplied with fuel at these five ports to the amount of 35,219 tons.

During June 76 collectors of customs report 620,107 gross tons of coal loaded on vessels for fueling purposes on the Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coasts. Of this total, 133,630 tons were placed on board vessels destined to domestic ports and 486,477 tons on foreign-bound vessels. The total value of this tonnage was reported as being $2,112,581, an average of about $3.41 per ton.

Moreover 32,101 gross tons of bunker coal were placed on lake vessels in the foreign trade during the month of June, 1908.

SOUTHERN COTTON MOVEMENT.

According to the practice of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, whose official figures are used, except when otherwise specified, the amount of cotton brought into sight from month to month during the season includes (1) receipts from plantations at ports; (2) receipts at the overland points of crossing on the Mississippi, Ohio, and Potomac rivers for shipment direct to northern and eastern mills; and (3) takings by southern mills. To this must be added (4) stocks left over at the end of the year at ports and interior towns. These four items together give the total commercial supply available for distribution.

VII.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS ON RIVERS AND CANALS.

The movements of domestic trade represented under this heading are not confined to any particular geographical division of the country. Operations on some of the leading waterways include those on the Monongahela River between Pittsburg, Pa., and Fairmont, W. Va.; the Ohio River at Davis Island Dam, Bellevue, Pa., and at Louisville, Ky.; the vessel movement at Cairo, Ill., on the Ohio and the Mississippi rivers; the traffic movements on the Delaware and Chesapeake Canal, connecting the Chesapeake and Delaware bays, and similar movements on various other navigable streams about whose navigation acceptable information is periodically available.

Unless otherwise specified, the data out of which the following tables are constructed are derived from monthly reports received from the engineers in charge of river and harbor improvements under the auspices of the War Department.

VESSEL MOVEMENT ON THE MISSISSIPPI AND OHIO RIVERS VIA CAIRO, ILL.

The following table is compiled from monthly reports received from Cairo, Ill., giving the number and tonnage of vessels passing or having their termini there. The tonnage of boats and barges is estimated tonnage. The tonnage of steamboats is actual.

The total through movement represents vessels passing Cairo to or from points on the Ohio, Mississippi, and other rivers. The local movement at Cairo represents vessels having Cairo as one of their termini. (The monthly reports of arrivals and clearances are made by Mr. George Parsons, trustee of Cairo trust property, who is intimately acquainted with river operations at this point.)

For the six months ending June 30, 1908, of the vessels reported, 1,454 were loaded with coal; 466 carried lumber, logs, piling, and wood; 58 carried ties; 284 carried merchandise; 5, rocks; 14, corn; 34, manufactured iron; 6, molasses; 3, sugar; 7, brick; 1, staves, and 14, wire and nails.

VIII.—COMMERCIAL MOVEMENTS OF COAL, COKE, AND PETROLEUM—PRODUCTION OF PIG IRON.

The series of tables following present some of the leading traffic operations in domestic coal, coke, and petroleum; also figures of pig-iron production by principal districts. They include shipments of anthracite coal from the anthracite regions, anthracite and bituminous coal and coke traffic originating east of Pittsburgh and Erie on the Pennsylvania Railroad system, coal and coke shipments over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, the Norfolk and Western Railroad, and other eastern roads, weekly Connells-ville coke output and shipments, St. Louis receipts of coal. Petroleum statistics are included for the pipe-line territory in the Appala-chian, Lima-Indiana, and Midcontinent fields. Statistics of pig iron production cover the principal producing districts, and are exclusive of small quantities of charcoal iron. For coastwise coal trade generally, see Section IV; for Lake trade, Section II.

STATEMENT OF PIPE LINES IN APPALACHIAN, LIMA-INDIANA, AND MIDCONTINENT FIELDS.

The following table shows the business of the principal petroleum pipe lines in the Appalachian, Lima-Indiana, and Midcontinent fields. The Appalachian field includes Pennsylvania, New York, West Virginia, southeastern Ohio, Kentucky, and Tennessee. The Lima-Indiana field includes northwestern Ohio, Indiana, and the productions in Illinois. The Midcontinent field includes Kansas and Oklahoma.

The pipe lines which report no runs from wells receive their oil through other pipe lines. The regular deliveries represent deliveries to refineries and for export, and do not include deliveries to other pipe lines. The runs from wells represent Appalachian oil exclusively in all cases except three, namely: The Buckeye, which receives Appalachian crude from southeastern Ohio and Lima-Indiana crude from northwestern Ohio; the Indiana Pipe Line Company, which receives crude from Indiana and Illinois, and the Prairie Oil and Gas Company, which operates in the Midcontinent field.

Prior to August, 1906, the Buckeye pipe line reported separately its Appalachian crude, and its Lima-Indiana crude was reported jointly with that of the Indiana pipe line. Also, prior to this date, the pipe lines distinguished deliveries and net stocks of Appalachian oil from those of Lima-Indiana oil, but at present the deliveries and stocks of several of the companies reported in the following table include both kinds of crude oil.

Net stocks, often called liabilities, represent the amount of oil for which the pipe lines have received to producers and which they are liable for. In addition, the pipe lines hold a certain amount of sediment and surplus oil which, combined with net stocks, constitute gross stocks.

X.—CHANGES IN RAILROAD FREIGHT RATES.

Changes in railroad freight rates are obtained through the courtesy of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the auditor of that body transmitting them on the latest date which will permit of their insertion in the Summary. In this manner their publication is assured as soon after their receipt as possible, and as a rule they cover a period nearly a month later than that represented by other statements throughout this report.

The matter of deciding what changes shall be considered of enough importance to be presented is left entirely to the discretion of the Commission, all tables which they submit being published without reservation of any kind. This, however, must not be taken to indicate that all important changes are included, as such a presentation would be a practical impossibility, owing to the great number of tariffs to be examined and the short time in which to procure the rates therefrom.
